Bermuda Cut Off As Wires, Roads Hit By Howler

HAMILTON, Bermuda (CP)—A howling Atlantic hurricane with winds between 123 and 140 miles an hour struck Bermuda today. Power lines were blown down and streets were strewn with fallen tree limbs. Heavy rain whirled about in the shrilling wind.

The holiday island began riding out the first of the hurricane in mid-morning. The sea was heavy, but the Eastern Steamships liner Evangeline rode snug in the harbor.

Drenching rains flooded long stretches of roadway and telephone lines failed. Power was cut at the big King Edward Memorial Hospital, where oil lamps were pressed into service. An emergency generator supplied the operating room.

Winds of 70 miles struck the colony shortly after 9 o'clock and increased in intensity. It was expected the storm would pass to the west after sweeping across Bermuda.

Damage already was heavier than the $100,000 ($400,000) loss caused by the hurricane which swept the island a year ago.

Mediator Orders Jews To Readmit Arabs To Villages

RHODES (AP)—Count Folke Bernadotte ordered Israel today to readmit Arab refugees to three villages and to rebuild their shattered homes. He said 8,000 Arabs had been driven out and their homes smashed by the Israel army July 18 in violation of the truce.

The villages are Ein Ghazal, Izzim and Jaba, south of Haifa, along the Haifa-Tel Aviv highway.

Bernadotte, the United Nations' Palestine mediator, made a report to the Security Council. In Jerusalem, the heaviest daylight gunfire in eight weeks of truce resumed Sunday in the Holy City.

A Jewish source said an Israeli soldier and eight civilians, including an eight-year-old boy and a 65-year-old woman, were killed. Among the victims were a father and his two children.

129 Petition City For Extra Fairfield Buses

The city today received a petition bearing 129 signatures of Fairfield residents asking for resumption of bus transportation service in the west end of Richardson Street.

The petition was circulated by Mrs. W. F. Gooding, 1221 Richardson Street, who states the fact that many of the signatories are property owners in the district is evidence that heavy buses have not damaged houses in that area of Fairfield.

Buses ran in the west section along Richardson Street prior to the inauguration of the unified transportation system.

Belgians Cheer Canadians Celebrating Bruges Victory

BRUGES, Belgium (CP)—Cries of "Vive le Canada" rang through this old-fashioned Flemish town today as 18 Canadian officers and men celebrated the fourth anniversary of the liberation of Bruges.

It was liberation day all over again. Crowds lining the flag-decked streets broke through police cordons and some of the spectators wept openly during the mile-long parade to the canal just outside the town where the bitter battle of Bruges raged four years ago.

Then, Maj.-Gen. Harry Foster drove in to liberate the town at the head of Canada's 4th Armored Division after three days and three nights of fighting against superior German forces ordered to hold Bruges at all costs.

Today, Gen. Foster and his men, representing the Canadian unit which drove the German forces from Bruges, Sept. 12,

Navy's Open House Here To Continue, Says New Admiral

The new Flag Officer Pacific Coast, Rear-Admiral H. G. De Wolf, had good news for navy-minded Victorians today. The liberal policy towards visitors to navy establishments, established by his predecessor, Rear-Admiral E. R. Manguy, will be continued.

At a press conference today, Admiral De Wolf said he is quite in agreement with the policy laid down earlier by Admiral Manguy, now Flag Officer Atlantic Coast.

"I've been delighted to see the degree of co-operation here and the good relations between the navy and those ashore," Admiral De Wolf said.

He agreed with Admiral Manguy that the establishments should be open to the public on the basis that "It's their navy."

Athabaskan Polio Victims In Toronto

TORONTO (CP)—Two sailors stricken with poliomyelitis last June while serving on the destroyer Athabaskan are being given physiotherapy treatment here.

Ordinary Seaman William Purvis of Toronto and AB Dwight Cousins of Vancouver were flown here from Winnipeg Saturday night in an R.C.A.F. North Star. They had a four-man naval escort.

They were the last of eight sailors stricken with Polio on the vessel to be brought to Sunnybrook Veterans' Hospital here for treatment.

Oil Truck Shot At

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—Two shots were fired at a gasoline truck early today, one bullet piercing the radiator, in what police said was the first violence of the C.I.O. oil workers 10-day strike. Driver Eugene C. Peach, 34, Lynnwood, said his truck was parked at the loading rack of an independent refinery when a car came down the highway and stopped. Two shots were fired.

New Admiral Outlines Navy Policy

Anti-submarine training is the main objective of the navy today, says Rear-Admiral H. G. DeWolf, C.B.E., D.S.O., D.S.C., R.C.N., new Flag Officer Pacific Coast, at his first press conference in the admiral's office at the Administration Building in H.M.C. Dockyard today. (See story, "Navy to Concentrate," page 15.)

City Property At Elk Lake Considered For Races, Fairs

It was learned reliably today that consideration is being given to the construction of a fair ground and horse-racing track on city property at Elk Lake but it is not known if the project could be completed in time for races next year.

Officials of the B.C. Agriculture Association, Saanich fair groups and members of the Saanich Council refused to confirm the reports that the Elk Lake property is under surveillance.

One councillor admitted, however, that such a plan has been looked into in past years. W. H. Mearns, secretary of the B.C. Agriculture Association, said his organization had no such plans. He did not believe any move would be made for construction of a fair grounds and race track in any municipality.

"The councils change from year to year and arrangements you make with one are not always accepted by the incoming group," he said.

Nevertheless an official of the North and South Saanich Fair Association said he had heard of the plan and thought it was a good one.

Mayor Percy George commented that personally he was of the opinion the city would welcome the move.

"I think we should have an exhibition here every year and I think it should be held somewhere on the Saanich Peninsula, in the heart of the farming area," he said.

"There are many citizens who want horse racing each year, too," he added.

It is understood over 100 acres of property running south from Elk Lake would be available for the grounds and track. It once was watershed when water supply was obtained from Elk and Beaver Lakes.

Police Keep Order On Oregon Waterfront

NORTH BEND, Ore. (AP)—State police patrolled the waterfront area near the Irwin-Lyons dock and sawmill today to watch for any skirmishes between C.I.O. mariners and A.F.L. sailors.

Pickets of the C.I.O. Mariners and Longshoremen massed about the dock when the lumber carrier Rolando, involved in a jurisdictional dispute, berthed late Sunday.

There was no trouble Sunday night, but police carried night sticks and tear gas in case there should be a repetition of the first fighting in Wilmington, Calif., when the Rolando attempted to unload its cargo there earlier this month.

The dispute broke out here last month when C.I.O. mariners claimed jurisdiction below docks on the Rolando. The ship was manned and was loaded by A.F.L. Sailors' Union of the Pacific.

Four Held In Connection With Toronto 'Kidnapping'

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Four suspects, three armed, were arrested in connection with the alleged kidnapping in Toronto early this morning of Dr. David Perlman, a Toronto physician. Dr. Perlman, 55, told police today he was driven from Toronto to Cottam, 23 miles south-east of here, where he was left tied up in a cabin. He escaped shortly after 7 a.m. by sliding one hand under the cords that bound his wrists. Police arrested two armed men in an automobile bearing a D-licence while the third armed suspect was arrested as he was leaving the post office. The fourth man, unarmed, was picked up at an intersection.

Two Officials On Plane Missing In N. Manitoba

OTTAWA (CP)—The United States embassy here today identified passengers aboard a U.S. naval aircraft missing since Sunday on a flight between Churchill and The Pas, Man.

They were: Capt. Sir Robert Stirling-Hamilton, R.N., naval adviser to the British High Commissioner at Ottawa; Capt. Benjamin Scott Custer, naval attaché at the U.S. embassy in Ottawa; Lieut. Charles Wilcox, U.S. navy, pilot of the plane; a staff sergeant named Sculise, who was a passenger being flown from Churchill; Chief Petty Officer Jack M. Kastner, a naval air pilot.

The missing plane is the object of a widespread search by both Canadian and U.S. planes over the bleak open country of Northern Manitoba between Churchill and The Pas.

Run Over By Car, 5-Year-Old Boy Seriously Injured

Robert Lewis, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis, 807 Kings Road, is in St. Joseph's Hospital suffering from fracture of the pelvis in three places, as a result of injuries sustained in an accident Sunday afternoon.

He is being attended by Dr. T. W. A. Gray, who reported that the little boy has a good chance of weathering through if complications do not set in.

According to a city police report, Duncan Hendry, 15, of 618 Francis Avenue, was driving a car west on Kings Road when young Robert ran out between two parked cars into the path of the moving vehicle. The boy was knocked down and before the driver could bring it to a halt, the front and rear wheels had run over him.

Hendry took Robert to hospital. The injured boy was accompanied by his father and mother.

The car involved was put in the police station yard for safe-keeping.

City Clears Way For Oak Bay To Buy Willows Racetrack

The city will not stand in Oak Bay's way in negotiations with S. W. Randall for purchase of the racetrack sections of the Willows Exhibition Grounds for $120,000.

It was learned today that the city's finance committee is recommending that an agreement of sale between the city and Mr. Randall be nullified.

The agreement was made two years ago when Mr. Randall, president of the Colwood Park Association, purchased all of the Willows grounds and buildings from the city for $125,000.

Main clause of the agreement was to the effect that the city would have first option on repurchase.

Action taken by the finance committee allows Oak Bay to purchase the section of the grounds without any strings.

Ald. J. D. Hunter, acting finance committee chairman, said: "The city does not want the property. Oak Bay can have it."

NO USE TO CITY

Mayor Percy George commented: "We do not want to stand in the way of Oak Bay. The property is of no use to us now."

Oak Bay ratepayers will have to vote on the purchase of the property and it is expected the polling will take place at the December elections.

It is understood the municipality desires to subdivide the racetrack grounds for residential building.

It is understood also that other sections of the Willows are up for sale, including the grandstand and fair buildings.

Moslem Crowd Wants Pakistan To Declare War

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Masses of demonstrators today marched to the residence of Prime Minister Liaquat Ali Khan and demanded that Pakistan declare war on India because of the invasion of Hyderabad.

At least five demonstrations and processions were counted on the main streets, the Moslems shouted "Long Live the Nizam" and "Do Away with the Indian Union."

The Dominion of India has been demanding that Hyderabad join the Indian Union.

A large public meeting pledged fullest support to the Nizam and condemned India's action.

TO 'RESTORE ORDER'

NEW DELHI (CP)—Indian troops invaded the princely state of Hyderabad from all four sides today. The declared purpose was to restore order.

The Dominion soldiers, spear-headed by tanks and armored cars and covered with air support, advanced swiftly, mostly against negligible opposition, a government statement indicated. A Madras dispatch said Indian forces striking from the east had advanced 40 miles to within possibly 60 miles of Hyderabad City, the state capital.

17 Hyderabadans Reported Killed

The first casualty report said 17 Hyderabad soldiers were killed and 17 captured at the cost of one Indian life.

Announcement that Indian troops would march across the borders of the huge, rich state had been expected for days, but came with startling suddenness this morning six hours after the march had begun at 4 a.m.

A.F.L. Refinery Workers Cross C.I.O. Picket Lines

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—More than 1,000 A.F.L. maintenance men passed through C.I.O. picket lines today in the first mass return to work of the 10-day-old California oil refinery workers' strike.

Calls of "scab" and jeers greeted the caravan of automobiles carrying 1,400 workers into the Richmond, Calif., plant of the Standard Oil Co. But the only semblance of violence was a rock bounced off an automobile top. Sixty steel-helmeted and gas-masked policemen were on guard.

The maintenance unions issued picket line passes to their members this morning. They insisted they were not breaking a strike, but merely living up to terms of their contract. It was pointed out that plant maintenance and oil refining are two different jobs and that the action did not mean any more gasoline would flow into the strike shortage area.

Mountain Of Loot Burglary Proceeds Found In Montreal

MONTREAL (CP)—A mountain of loot ranging from mink coats to vacuum cleaners was piled up at police headquarters here today as the burglary squad expressed belief it had solved a two-year series of thefts from Montreal homes.

The loot, valued at $27,500, was seized Sunday night after police had arrested an alleged burglar identified only as "The Lone Wolf" following a routine check-up.

The arrest came in suburban Outremont when police checked on an open door in a residence. When a mild-mannered man they found nearby was unable to give an account of himself they took him to the police headquarters, where they discovered he had 20 skeleton keys, a screw driver and a list of all week-end weddings in Outremont.

Further questioning led police to his lavishly-decorated home in the North End, where they found goods suspected of having been stolen from Montreal homes.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Charlie Conacher, coach of the Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League, said here today that Gaye Stewart, high-scoring winger, had signed his contract with the Hawks for the 1948-49 season.

En route to Moose Jaw, Sask., where Hawks' amateur school opens this week, Conacher said Stewart "signed on the dotted line in Port Arthur Friday."

The Hawks' coach also announced that Billy Mosienko, brilliant winger who missed part of the last season's campaign due to a broken ankle, had signed his contract to bring to 14 the number of players signed so far by the Hawks.

Pakistan Governor-General Buried With Military Honors

KARACHI (CP) — The body of Mohammed Ali Jinnah, founder and first Governor-General of Pakistan, was buried Sunday night with full military honors.

Jinnah, 71, died here Saturday night of heart disease. His fight of many years for a Moslem Pakistan, free from Hindu India, was crowned with success in the division of the sub-continent Aug. 15, 1947. Jinnah had been Governor-General of the Moslem Dominion since that time.

Government sources here said they expected an announcement from London at any moment naming a new Governor-General.

Sir Ghulam Hussein Hidayatullah, premier of Sind Province, was mentioned as a possible successor to Jinnah.

Quarters close to the Pakistan government said today that Khawaja Nazimuddin, Prime Minister of East Bengal, was recommended to the King to succeed Jinnah as Governor-General.

TENSION GROWS

Jinnah's death came as tension between India and the princely state of Hyderabad reached a new peak.

The government of India announced today its army had marched across the border into Hyderabad at midnight Sunday. The Moslem Nizam of Hydrabad has refused to join the Indian union, although the population of his state is predominantly Hindu.

Widely mourned... Late Mohammed Ali Jinnah.

bad has refused to join the Indian union, although the population of his state is predominantly Hindu.

Jinnah, who held the official title of "Quaid-e-Azam" (Great Leader) was held in veneration by the 70,000,000 inhabitants of Pakistan similar to the devotion of Hindus to the late Mohandas K. Gandhi.

An estimated 500,000 Moslems lined the streets for the funeral procession as four-cabinet ministers, including the Prime Minister, helped lift the bier to a gun carriage.

Volunteers carrying black flags moved through the streets urging the people to bear the burden of Jinnah's death "with patience and be ready to face the emergency boldly."

40 DAYS' MOURNING

A 40-day period of official mourning was proclaimed for all Pakistan. Messages of condolence poured in from all over the world. The King sent this message to Jinnah's sister, Fatima:

"The Queen and I are distressed to hear the news of your distinguished brother's death. His loss will, we know well, be irreparable to yourself and all in Pakistan. We send you our sincere sympathy."

In Ottawa Prime Minister King of Canada extended "sincere sympathy" to the people of Pakistan on the death of Jinnah. In a cable to Prime Minister Ali Khan, the Canadian leader said: "All parts of the British Commonwealth will be pained to learn of the sudden passing of His Excellency Mohammed Ali Jinnah, the first Governor-General of Pakistan."

From New Delhi, Chakravarti Rajagopalachari, Governor-General of India, sent his "deepest, most heartfelt sympathy" to the government and people of Pakistan.

Death Of Jinnah May Have Vital Effect On All India

The vast significance of Mohammed Ali Jinnah's death is discussed in the following article by an Associated Press man who was correspondent in India during the years when the great division of that land was taking shape. He now is an A.P. editor in San Francisco.

By WILLIAM PHIPPS.
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—What will become of Pakistan now that death has claimed Ali Jinnah, the man who forced it almost single-handed into a Moslem nation only 13 months ago?

That is a real question, for many Indians believe the great Indian sub-continent would be united in independence today had it not been for two men—Jinnah, the Moslem, and Mohandas K. Gandhi, the Hindu.

OUTLOOK CHANGES

Now both are dead. Thus, in the reasoning of these Indians—politically-wise Hindus and Moslems alike—the reason for splitting the country into the two dominions of Indian and Pakistan has been removed.

In India, as the struggle for independence from Britain lost its drive time and again because of Hindu-Moslem differences, scores of astute Indians told me:

"We could have freedom at once if Gandhi and Jinnah were to die. Without them, Hindus and Moslems would stand together. The British then could have no choice but to grant us independence."

After Britain practically thrust dominion status upon them—still divided—Aug. 15, 1947, Hindu and Moslem visitors to the United States said repeatedly:

"Yes, we have our independence, but it is empty without political and economic unity. Perhaps when both Gandhi and Jinnah are dead we can be one nation once again."

At first, it seemed strangely incongruous for fair-minded Indians to speak thus of Gandhi, the ascetic little leader of the Hindus who carried to the masses his doctrine of non-violence and even fasted almost unto death to enforce it.

DIFFERED THEN

Many Indian political observers saw Gandhi in a less spiritual light. They believed he cost India her independence years ago by insisting on non-violence when Moslems would have been willing to fight for it.

The division left a weakened but still strong Dominion of India and a woefully weak Moslem state of Pakistan.

Many Indians and foreign observers have doubted from the outset that Pakistan could ever thrive.

All that has held Pakistan together and apart from India, many said, was the tremendous force of Jinnah's will.

Now Jinnah is dead.

Woman Wrestles With Charging Deer

JARRETTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A

22-year-old woman charged by a buck deer on a lonely road subdued the animal by grasping its antlers and hanging on for nearly half an hour until her screams were heard.

Theresa Rowe, switchboard operator at the Huntingdon Valley (Pa.) Country Club, was standing alone Saturday at a bus stop when she saw a large deer approaching. The animal lowered its head and charged.

After a buffeting which left her covered with cuts and bruises, she grasped the deer's antlers.

Joseph Weller, a farmhand, heard Miss Rowe's screams and with his employer, Russel Megar, ran to her aid. The deer bounded away.

Lost Hunter Finds Way Out As Party Ready For Search

A search party organized to comb the woods near Mile 16 on the Sooke Highway for Kenneth Sandwith, Pandora Avenue, hunter, was called off early today after Sandwith turned up on the highway after spending the night in the woods.

The 23-year-old hunter was reported missing Sunday night while hunting with a friend. Fear was expressed that he had fallen over a cliff near where he was last seen.

Constable A. W. Quinn of the B.C. Police Sooke Detachment, was ready to go into the woods this morning with Gordon Sword and eight other rangers, and the rangers' bloodhound, Sir Roderick, when Sandwith turned up.

Late Sunday, Const. Quinn and Game Warden R. Sinclair had tried to locate Sandwith, but the search was called off because of darkness.

Sandwith, first man reported lost in this area during the current hunting season which opened Saturday, was none the worse for spending the night in the bush. He fell asleep at a point only one-quarter of a mile from the highway.

N. Vancouver Retains Commissionership

NORTH VANCOUVER (CP)—Taxpayers in the District of North Vancouver have rejected an opportunity to return to a reeve and council form of government.

In a referendum held Saturday, the district voted to remain under a commissionership for at least another two years. North Vancouver District has been under a commissionership since 1932. M. E. Sowden, who has held the post for three years, is expected to be reappointed.

Only 1,444 voters, 20 per cent of the total number eligible, went to the polls.

Wedding Held Up

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Stephany Saja, 23-year-old coalminer's daughter, and Frank Hitchcock, internationally-known polo player, delayed fixing their wedding date today pending the entrance of a final decree in his suit for divorce from his second wife.

Weather

Weather synopsis and official forecast issued from the Dominion Public Weather Office, Vancouver, at 9 a.m. Sept. 13, valid until midnight Sept. 14:

Synopsis—A low pressure area off the west coast of Vancouver Island appears to be intensifying and deteriorating conditions are expected to spread over the B.C. coast during the next 24 hours. Cloudiness extends over the interior of the province this morning and scattered showers are likely to occur in some of those regions this afternoon and evening. Afternoon temperatures are expected to be somewhat lower than those of the past two days.

Red Flag Downed

As Russian guns were fired at a crowd of 200,000 anti-Russian demonstrators in Berlin, a German climbed the flagpole on the Brandenburg Gate to snatch the Red flag. He threw it down to the crowd, which was cheering him.

Six Lose Lives When Auto Hit By Train In Quebec

MONT JOLI, Que. (CP)—Six persons, five of them members of one family, were killed near Sayabec, 30 miles from Mont Joli, Sunday night when their automobile was struck by the Canadian National Railways Ocean Limited at a level crossing.

Sayabec is some 20 miles east of here on the south shore of the St. Lawrence river on the C.N.R.'s main line between Montreal and the Maritimes.

The level crossing where train and car collided is just-west of Sayabec.

The dead: J. Lucien Lebel, 33, of Mont Joli. His wife, Mrs. Monique Lebel, 26, Louise Lebel, three months, Girard Lebel, 24, of St. Octave, Que. Anita Lebel, 33, of St. Octave, Dolores Fournier, 23, of Price, Que.

The bodies were so badly mangled it was scarcely possible to identify them when they were taken to C.N.R. sheds at Sayabec.

The remains of five were found at intervals along the tracks. A sixth body was in the crumpled wreckage of the car.

Big Four Deputies Meet In Paris Today On Italian Colonies

PARIS (AP)—The Big Four Foreign Ministers' Council met at the Foreign Ministry today for a last try to agree on Italy's colonies.

Unless they agree by Wednesday, the solution will have to be made in the United Nations under terms of the Italian peace treaty.

Almost everyone concerned is pessimistic.

Officially, it is called a meeting of the Foreign Ministers of the four great powers—Britain, France, Russia and the United States. Actually, only one Foreign Minister, Robert Schuman of France, is in attendance.

Britain is represented by Hector McNeill, Minister of State, Russia by Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Deputy Foreign Minister, and the United States by Lewis W. Douglas, ambassador to London.

Murder Charge Laid In Death Of Negro During Georgia Vote

MT. VERNON, Ga. (AP)—A white man is facing a charge of murder in the death of a negro the night of Georgia's primary election.

J. A. Johnson was held in jail after being arrested early Sunday, Sheriff R. M. McCrimmon said. His brother, Johnnie Johnson, 22-year-old logger of Alston, Ga., charged with being an accessory to the murder, is free on $500 bond.

The negro, Isiah Nixon, 28, father of six children, died in a hospital from three gunshot wounds inflicted the night of the election, Wednesday.

The sheriff said Johnnie Johnson told him he and his brother went to the Nixon house to get Nixon to work for them and that his brother fired in self defence.

McCrimmon added he was told Nixon insisted on voting. The Johnson brothers went to Nixon's home Wednesday night and J. A. Johnson fired the fatal shots in front of the negro's wife and children, the sheriff said.

Businessmen In China Puzzled By Red Speech Of Chiang's Son

SHANGHAI (AP)—British and U.S. businessmen were shocked and puzzled today by what they described as a "rabble rousing, red flag waving" speech Sunday by Maj.-Gen. Chiang Ching-kuo, Russian-educated son of Chiang Kai-shek.

"Now we are really faced with the threat of out and out Communism," said the manager of one of the leading American banks.

"I can not understand it or reconcile it with the Chinese government's avowed policy against Communism," he added. "But the events of the past three weeks speak for themselves. And this speech puts the official stamp on them."

Young Chiang, economic czar of Shanghai, told a cheering throng of Chinese that this country was in the midst of a social revolution, which he termed "a socialistic revolutionary movement." He attacked "unpatriotic businessmen" in particular, and wealthy Chinese in general.

One newspaper headlined the speech as "a declaration of war against the wealthy."

UNCERTAINTY VOICED

Fear marked most reaction among all foreign and Chinese businessmen.

During the last three weeks, young Chiang has been Shanghai's economic czar—carrying out his father's stringent stop-inflation decrees. He has had more than 100 bankers and businessmen arrested.

However, prices have continued to rise—in some cases more than 100 per cent.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE

REGARDLESS OF WHICHEVER SIDE one cares to take, the current controversy over Government House serves to focus public attention upon the functions and responsibilities attaching to the high office associated with its stately walls, and to remind us of the tradition of gracious hospitality built up around it over the years by successive Lieutenant-Governors. Under their respective regimes, its hospitable doors have been opened from time to time for functions at which not only distinguished visitors from all parts of the world have been honored guests, but to which officialdom and members of the public have been cordially welcomed.

In addition to this more formal entertainment, it has long been the custom for Government House gardens always to be on view to the public, thus enabling the local community, as well as visiting tourists, the privilege of sharing in their well-kept beauty. Because, human nature being what it is, there were those who abused this latter privilege, either by acts of vandalism or by unwarranted intrusion upon that privacy to which even holders of high public office are entitled, the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Banks recently took steps to bar the general public from the grounds. Coming as a corollary to that action, their more recent decision to close the premises for entertainment purposes during their absence in England has intensified the controversy which followed the withdrawal of the other privileges.

Whatever the merits—or otherwise—of the case may be, it emphasizes the fact that British Columbia has been signally fortunate in the type of men who have accepted this high office ever since its inception. Invariably they have filled it with such generous recognition of its tradition of hospitality as to necessitate their digging deeply into their own private pockets to do the honors associated with it. So much so that it is common knowledge that the provincial government is finding it more and more difficult to induce public-minded citizens able and willing to accept the financial and other responsibilities it entails. In view of the foregoing, then, perhaps the time is coming when it may be necessary to review the whole system and decide whether Government House has outlived its usefulness as a symbol, and whether those formalities to which the office of Lieutenant-Governor must conform could be discharged by the Chief Justice of the Province—at, incidentally, considerably less cost to the taxpayer.

MAKING PROGRESS

AN IMPORTANT STEP FORWARD IN implementation of the European Recovery Plan has been taken with the decision by the countries concerned as to how $4,875,000,000 in United States funds is to be divided. The total comprises the first year of financial assistance, and the delicate matter of allocating the money among the western European nations demanded a full measure of co-operation and agreement by each of the beneficiaries. This was achieved, leaving only a system of intra-European assistance payments to be worked out. Once this has been settled, the 1948-49 program will be submitted to the American Economic Co-operation Commission. Details are expected to be ready by Sept. 25, after which the full effect of the plan may be felt.

The urgent necessity that the E.R.P. function successfully has been stressed on many occasions by those who perceive its vital importance in restoring western Europe to economic stability. Failure of the plan would remove the hope that has enabled the European democracies to survive Communist onslaughts. They might be forced, as a measure of self-preservation, to turn to their powerful totalitarian neighbor. Few of them at the moment have the internal financial stamina to "go it alone," and failure by the West would mean opportunity for the East. This explains the tremendous attempts that have been made by the Cominform to sabotage the "Marshall Plan." It explains, too, the determination with which the participating countries have settled their differences and formed the organization that makes operation of the plan possible. The many months that have been spent in preliminary work will now begin to pay dividends.

EYES ON THE SKY

THE INTEREST SHOWN BY NEWS-papers in the new Russian jet planes, drawings of which have been published in the current edition of Jane's "All the World's Aircraft," reflects the times in which we live. So, also, does the comment of the compiler of the edition who states that as far as Soviet aviation is concerned, "Russia remains an enigma." Under happier circumstances, the western world might be seized merely with a healthy curiosity over developments in the U.S.S.R. Now, however, with the airplane a vital weapon of attack, the concern is not so innocent.

While the types disclosed in the new catalogue of aircraft are presumably only those which the Soviet Union appears prepared to reveal, the relaxation of security measures to permit a detailed analysis of tests undertaken by the de Havilland Goblin Mk.2 jet engine discloses at least that Britain is "keeping her powder dry" and has produced a standard model of exceptional performance. This engine, fitted in a Vampire fighter, has been subjected to the most gruelling conditions analogous to those of combat. It has come through the tests with flying colors.

It would be naive to suppose that Britain is exposing her latest aeronautical achievements to the world. Russia may be an enigma in aviation, but the western powers unquestionably have a development or two up their sleeves. That, under the circumstances, is a comforting thought when coupled with the demonstration of the durability of the engine which has undergone recent tests.

Although we are permitted to feel a certain measure of satisfaction in the efficiency of the protective machinery that exists today, the west and the peoples of Russia as a whole will find far greater gratification in the time, for which all hope, when new advances in the air may be heralded as a sample of civilized progress—not as a means of inflicting destruction on fellow humans.

B.C.'S LOSS, CANADA'S GAIN

THE POSITIONS WHICH DR. WILLIAM Kaye Lamb has held and the manner in which he has discharged the duties connected with them are widely known to British Columbians. His career since he graduated from university has been one that has stamped him as an individual of outstanding capacities and the ability to apply them to the tasks with which he has been confronted.

Dr. Lamb's appointment last week as Dominion archivist marks another advance in a career which has added materially to the cultural benefit of Canadians. More particularly has his work been known in this province. Formerly as provincial librarian and archivist, and until his elevation to the Ottawa post as librarian at the University of British Columbia, he has exercised his talents in a manner to assist the development of facilities and service at the Parliament Buildings and at the institution at Point Grey. No more impressive tribute could be offered than that of Dr. Norman A. M. MacKenzie, president of the university, whose statement: "He will be almost impossible to replace" needs no elaboration.

It is, of course, gratifying to learn of the advancement of British Columbia personalities. If Dr. Lamb's translation to the Ottawa scene represents a loss to the province—as it does—it is nevertheless a gain for Canada in which we will share.

BLIND COLLISION

THERE WAS A NOTE OF MORE THAN passing tragedy in the New York dispatch last Saturday telling of the death of hundreds of small birds—thrushes, warblers and others—as they crashed into the Empire State Building and plunged to the busy streets far below. Migrating in great flocks, they apparently had been forced lower than usual by bad weather, and encountered the man-made obstruction in the darkness.

Their tiny, bright-plumaged bodies were crushed on the pavements, dirtied by the unseeing traffic, ground under the wheels of noisy machines. Victims of a civilization which they did not understand and of which they were only dimly aware, they perished as they pursued the course on which their blind instinct directed them. Of how many dead and gone human beings might the same be said!

TAKING PART

THERE IS A VERY BENEFICIAL effect to be derived by the individual from performing even small acts of good citizenship. They create in the doer a feeling of kinship with the community in which he or she lives—a sense of oneness and "belonging"—from which may be derived a satisfaction far in excess of that enjoyed by those who let their good intentions languish in the mental state. The simple act of casting a civic vote, paying taxes, contributing to a blood donors' clinic, attending a parent-teachers' meeting, or participating in other similar group activities carries with it its own particular satisfaction. Left in an inactive condition, retained merely as a well-meaning idea to be implemented "some time," the good impulse creates little personal gratification and less community good. But carried out, made real through active endeavor, it becomes a valuable source of community spirit.

THAT'S FOR SURE

IN A NOT SO DISTANT ERA, IT WAS the custom of youth on this continent to emphasize the affirmative with the phrase "your danged tootin'." Where it originated is a mystery. But the person who parroted those words was giving irrefutable endorsement to some statement. Of more recent date are the equivalent phrases: "You can say that again," "You ain't whistling" and "check." They all were variations of the older "I'll say." Now the wheel of wit, or what passes for wit, has turned up "That's for sure." Youth can give you no greater earnest of agreement than a repetition of the phrase. So we have another cliché; but, under prevailing conditions, not a very good one. Virtually nothing seems sure in this day and age. That's for sure.

NOTES

A realist is a person who doesn't believe you have a pain because he can't see it.

Body cells are wonderful things. They work endlessly to repair the damage caused by a weak brain.

We are still primitive. Every boy of 14 would rather be a well-built six-footer than a mental giant.

Following 'The Few'

UNITED KINGDOM and American planes are converging on London this week in manoeuvres to mark the anniversary of the "Battle of Britain"—epic air struggle in which "The Few" broke the power of the Luftwaffe and turned the tide of World War II in Europe. Londoners, lifting up their eyes, see American Shooting Star jet planes, British Lancaster bombers and many other symbols of Anglo-American air power.

September 15 has been observed annually as the anniversary date because it was one of the fiercest days of that battle. The enemy onslaught lasted from July 10 to October 31, 1940.

THE LATEST BOMBERS and fighters will zoom over the capital, but special interest will centre on a plane that is now to some extent outdated—the Spitfire fighter. For it was largely the Spitfire, manned by the famous "Few," which beat the Nazi armada of bombers.

Commemoration of Britain's deliverance in its greatest hour of danger recalls the heroic story of Reginald Mitchell, designer of the famous Spitfire fighter.

Already a promising young aircraft designer, but seriously ill with cancer, he went in 1933 with his family to recuperate in the Austrian mountains. There he learned of secret Air Force training establishments, of the Nazi drive for air power, of plans to produce 5,000 bombers.

MITCHELL HURRIED back to Britain, resolved to shelve his dreams of building great transport planes. He would concentrate on a fighter machine to protect Britain when her hour of need came. Working against time—he was already a dying man—he drove himself mercilessly for 20 months to create a fighter that would dive at 10 miles a minute, with eight machine-guns spitting.

On one occasion, some of the drawings for the oil-feed system were not clear. He completed a whole new set by the following morning, working all through the night. When he was too ill to come to the factory, the technicians came to his bedside and he gave his orders propped up on a pillow.

MITCHELL LIVED LONG enough to see the first Spitfire on its test flight. It was taken up by Captain J. "Mutt" Summers, chief test pilot of Vickers-Armstrongs Ltd., the man who had tested other planes designed by Mitchell. Rushed into production, it became the super-plane that smashed Goering's bomber offensive.

Pressure was so great at the height of the Battle of Britain that planes leaving the factories on a Saturday were in action on the following Tuesday, back for repair 24 hours later, and in service again by the week-end.

By the end of the war, Britain had poured over 20,000 Spitfires off her production lines—improved in engine-power and armament, but still the basic design of Reginald Mitchell.

Today, two streams of inventiveness—Sir Frank Whittle's jet engine and new advances in structure—have converged to put Britain at the top in world aircraft design.

THE SAME COMPANY that built Mitchell's Spitfire, Vickers-Armstrongs, is now scoring records on two new aircraft types—one commercial and one military. The twin-jet-engined Nene Viking—Britain's first all-jet airliner to fly—recently smashed the London-Paris transport plane speed record on a 70-minute round-trip dash. It covered the 220-mile outward trip in 34 minutes 7 seconds, returning in 36 minutes 30 seconds. At one point over the English Channel, it touched 415 m.p.h.

At the controls, speeding at more than six miles a minute, was Vickers' greying, 50-year-old chief test pilot—the same Captain "Mutt" Summers who piloted the first Spitfire one morning in 1936. Usual flying time from London to Paris is 85 minutes.

THE VIKING, powered by two Rolls-Royce Nene jet motors, each developing 5,000 lbs. static thrust, is an experimental plane for testing engines. It is being used as a "blueprint" for jet airliners of the future under Britain's program of gas turbine development.

On the military side, the Attacker jet fighter has twice raised the world's record speed for the 100-kilometer closed circuit. Carrying full military equipment, it flew at nearly 565 m.p.h.—68 m.p.h. faster than the official record held by Group Capt. John Cunningham in a Vampire.

THIS NEW SINGLE-SEATER jet fighter is powered by a Rolls-Royce Nene turbo-jet engine of 5,000 lbs. thrust—the most powerful unit in the world. A formidable low-attack machine, it is armed with four 20 mm. cannon and two 1,000 lb. bombs or four 300 lb. rockets. The cockpit is armored and pressurized and, in emergency, the pilot can eject himself with his seat by means of a cordite-operated jack. It has a maximum speed of 590 m.p.h. and can climb to 30,000 feet in just over six minutes.

Deck-landing trials have been carried out with a naval version of the jet Attacker. In two days it made 12 landings on the aircraft carrier H.M.S. Illustrious—the first time that a jet aircraft with a tailwheel undercarriage had been landed on a ship.

We cannot allow the Un-American (Activities) Committee to determine standards of loyalty for American citizens. These men are using the political techniques of Hitler, Mussolini, Goering, Tojo and Franco.—Henry A. Wallace, Progressive Party presidential candidate.

Anybody Want To Turn Back?

Eggs Are Not The Answer

By JAMES THRASHER from New York

ONE incident of Henry Wallace's journey through North Carolina symbolizes the third party candidate's hostile reception in the south. A man was seen to hoist a boy of about eight onto his shoulders so the youngster could get a clearer shot at the target of his eggs and tomatoes.

NO FORESIGHT

Most of the egg, vegetable and rock throwing seems to have been done by kids of teen age and less. But they must have had the moral support, as the little boy had the physical support, of their elders. None who took part in these exhibitions, whatever their age, behaved with much grown-up foresight. If they had they would have seen that they were defeating their own purpose.

For they forgot to consider that eggs and tomatoes have this peculiarity as political weapons: they can be used so much more effectively by those who are hit than by those who do the throwing. So the Carolinians lost the battle when they fired the first salvo.

Maybe Mr. Wallace didn't exactly enjoy the sticky sensation of being smacked by an egg or the instinctive humiliation of being jeered and pelted in public. But his behavior during most of the onslaught showed he was shrewd enough to realize that he was collecting political advantage at the same time that he was collecting yolk stains on his shirt.

SLIGHTLY MARTYRED

Mr. Wallace can't really hope to get far in the south. But every time some egg-slinging young'un in Dixie makes him look slightly messy he also makes him look slightly martyred. And for a man who can only try for a good showing, the few votes picked up as a result are all to the good.

Thus he can almost welcome anything that tries to deny him the right of free speech by force. Such undemocratic actions offend a lot of people who would never think of voting for Henry Wallace. Probably they also win the support of some slightly emotional northerners who had been undecided before.

But Mr. Wallace's hostile reception was more than undemocratic. It was a blatant announcement that his attackers were suffering from mental impotence. Egg-throwing isn't a sign of power or righteous wrath.

If his Carolina trip had been without incident, people might have taken a longer look into one of the biggest pork barrels in our political history. A billion dollars a year—that's what Mr. Wallace was offering for the southern vote. He could collect this huge sum by a special, discriminatory tax on the profits of big corporations with capital invested in the south.

People might have wondered how long those corporations would stay in the south under such conditions. They might have wondered just how the south would have benefited if those corporations pulled out, or if they were taxed so heavily that the region's further industrial development was stifled.

LOST IN CONFUSION

But the illogic of Mr. Wallace's billion-dollar boondoggle was lost in the confusion, and the third-party standard bearer emerged as a rather dramatic figure beset by the rabble. For that kindness—perhaps not wholly unexpected—Mr. Wallace can thank his ill-wishers down in Dixie.

Global Survey

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

PAUL G. HOFFMAN, economic co-operation administrator, says that Marshall Plan aid will be cut off from any country going Communist—or Fascist for that matter.

That's a timely and encouraging reaffirmation of a policy which must be iron-clad if the democracies are to win their life-and-death fight against Communism. There can be no half-way business in combating the Redism, despite the slopping sentimentality which is being bandied about in favor of appeasing the Bolsheviks.

SAME POLICY

The American policy regarding Communism (and Fascism, if it should crop up) is, in theory at least the policy of Britain and the rest of the Marshall-Plan countries. It's avowed purpose is to prevent democracies from being forced into Communism. However, I believe it cuts much deeper and that we are safe in saying it also is designed to whittle down the war potential of Russia and her satellites. This is a purely defensive measure.

Not only does this policy apply to the Marshall Plan, but it affects general economic relations that broadly speaking are restricted to those things which do not strengthen the Communists militarily.

This paradoxical situation naturally gives rise to the query of why there should be any trade at all. Well, even in a "hot war" there are certain transactions which can be carried out profitably on a quid pro quo basis. NOT IDEAL.

Eastern Europe has certain commodities that western Europe needs, and vice versa. So there is trade in such things as don't involve the war-potential. Perhaps that isn't an ideal arrangement, but it is a horse-sense one.

Of course, there are some items of trade which fall within the grey zone, that is, no matter how carefully trade is screened, some things useful in war will get through. For example, a microscope might be extremely useful under certain circumstances, but one certainly couldn't class it with a high-explosive.

Anyway this grey zone isn't a thing to worry about too much. The worry should be lest it is forgotten that Communism must be fought with every ounce of strength both on the battle-front and at home.

QUEBEC INTERPRETATION

Halifax Herald
When politicians in Quebec and Ontario demand "provincial rights" they mean, as often as not, the provincial "right" to tax centralized national wealth.

This is why the governments of Ontario and Quebec have refused to sign taxation agreements with the Dominion.

NO SUBSTITUTE

London (Ont.) Free Press
There is no doctrine or formula devised, or yet to be devised, that ever will eliminate the need for work. The greatest task of the Socialist government of Britain is to create and promote a will to work. Without it, there can be nothing but disappointment and disaster for the government and the people generally.

MATURE OUTLOOK

Toronto Globe and Mail
If children (and those adults who continue to act like children) can be taught to regard their neighbors not as some queer, alien element, but as fellow-Canadians, united in common purpose, then intolerance will evaporate. Distrust or abuse of one's neighbor because of the color of his skin, the shape of his nose or the church he attends, has no place in the affairs of a mature people.

DEEPLY ROOTED

Winnipeg Free Press
South Africa's racial problems are deeply rooted. The country, whose majority is colored and economically submerged, is controlled by a minority of white people sharply divided among themselves. Only political wisdom can preserve a proper equipoise between these various races and religions. With all his faults Marshal Smuts had a far better record in this field than the new administration will likely achieve. The Broederbond seeks to touch old antagonisms with flame. That is why its influence is so evil and why its repudiation is needed as proof that it has freed itself from this secret and sinister pressure. As yet there are no signs of any such declaration being made.

The Situation Improves

From The Bank of Nova Scotia Review

IN THE 18 MONTHS from May, 1946, to November, 1947, Canada's exchange reserves, i.e. her official holdings of gold and U.S. dollars, fell from $1,667 millions to $480 millions. This represented an average loss of $66 millions per month—a rate of loss which, if continued, would have wiped out the remaining reserve by early this summer.

THE VIKING, powered by two Rolls-Royce Nene jet motors, each developing 5,000 lbs. static thrust, is an experimental plane for testing engines. It is being used as a "blueprint" for jet airliners of the future under Britain's program of gas turbine development.

On the military side, the Attacker jet fighter has twice raised the world's record speed for the 100-kilometer closed circuit. Carrying full military equipment, it flew at nearly 565 m.p.h.—68 m.p.h. faster than the official record held by Group Capt. John Cunningham in a Vampire.

THIS NEW SINGLE-SEATER jet fighter is powered by a Rolls-Royce Nene turbo-jet engine of 5,000 lbs. thrust—the most powerful unit in the world. A formidable low-attack machine, it is armed with four 20 mm. cannon and two 1,000 lb. bombs or four 300 lb. rockets. The cockpit is armored and pressurized and, in emergency, the pilot can eject himself with his seat by means of a cordite-operated jack. It has a maximum speed of 590 m.p.h. and can climb to 30,000 feet in just over six minutes.

Deck-landing trials have been carried out with a naval version of the jet Attacker. In two days it made 12 landings on the aircraft carrier H.M.S. Illustrious—the first time that a jet aircraft with a tailwheel undercarriage had been landed on a ship.

Russian Castles

Washington Post
The Presidium of the Supreme Soviet has decreed that every Russian has the right to buy or build himself a house.

There is quite a gap between the financial ability of the average American veteran and the cost of some of the dream houses now offered on the market. But in Moscow, where housing reportedly is on the basis of several families to a room, these are probably only plutocratic bourgeois considerations. Anyway, it is encouraging that the Russians now have the right to dream of their castles. Undoubtedly a new crop of Mr. Blandings will be prospecting any day now.

We cannot allow the Un-American (Activities) Committee to determine standards of loyalty for American citizens. These men are using the political techniques of Hitler, Mussolini, Goering, Tojo and Franco.—Henry A. Wallace, Progressive Party presidential candidate.

which figures have been made available, the official holdings of gold and U.S. dollars had recovered to $742 millions.

The purpose of this review is to outline the facts behind the recent improvement in the exchange position and to consider the significance of some of the factors responsible for it, namely, the exchange-saving program, the growth in exports to the United States, and the European Recovery Program.

While adequate information concerning the international transactions which account for the improvement must await the appearance of the annual balance of payments estimates early next year, there is enough information available to perceive in broad outline the main developments affecting the exchange reserves.

Of primary importance has been a major redirection in Canadian exports and imports which has translated a large U.S. dollar deficiency in merchandise trade into a moderate surplus.

The trade figures for the last three half-yearly periods are a reliable guide. Comparing the first half of 1948 with the corresponding period of 1947, exports to the United States have increased very substantially and imports have been reduced.

EXPORTS GREATER

In the six months of 1948, exports were some $160 millions greater than a year earlier and imports were down by nearly $100 millions. Thus the merchandise trade deficit with the United States, which was close to $500 millions in the first six months of 1947, was reduced to some $230 millions in the first half of this year.

Though the large surpluses in merchandise trade with Britain, other Empire countries, and other foreign countries have been considerably reduced as compared with the first half of 1947, it is probable that receipts of convertible exchange from these countries have been nearly as large.

REDUCED DEFICIT

In 1947, Canada was financing a large part of her exports to overseas countries through credits and her receipts of convertible exchange were not nearly sufficient to cover her heavy merchandise deficit with the United States. In the first half of 1948, the use of credits was progressively and sharply curtailed and receipts of convertible exchange were probably more than sufficient to meet the reduced merchandise deficit with the United States.

Away With Them

Ottawa Journal
Experts tell us that a "tail-set" is the counterpart of a checkrein and that when tightened suitably, holds up the horse's tail, giving it a more dashing and handsome appearance.

Humane Society officers contend that use of such sets are painful to horses and have banned them from horse-shows in the city. It is quite likely the horses are happier without them. They would also be happier without bits, saddles and overweight riders.

Huge Warehouse Burns In Amsterdam

AMSTERDAM (Reuter)—Europe's biggest cold storage warehouse was destroyed here Saturday in one of the worst fires in Amsterdam's history.

One building of the Blaufries cold storage warehouse collapsed when the ammonia in the cooling installations caught fire, and although the blaze in the other buildings was mastered after many hours the food stored there was spoiled by the heat.

Losses were said to include 1,700 tons of butter destined for export, a large consignment of Argentine meat which had arrived only Saturday, eggs, 4,000 bottles of blood plasma and 1,000 bottles of mothers' milk collected from volunteers this year.

Police questioned everyone who had been in the building since Friday, but nothing was known of the cause of the fire. Rumors of arson were unconfirmed.

3-Week C.N.E. Urged As Attendance Hits All-Time Record High

TORONTO (CP) — Largest crowds in Canadian National Exhibition history—2,612,000 during its 14 days—gave the world's greatest annual fair its biggest success, officials said today.

The show wound up Saturday with another record day, its ninth since it opened Aug. 27. Paid admissions Saturday totaled 257,500, compared with 232,000 on the same day last year. Total attendance in 1947 was 2,360,000—251,500 behind this year's figure.

But the figures only told half the story. The rest lay in the attractions the crowd had come to see: The nightly show before the new $3,400,000 grandstand, the agricultural exhibits, the national horse show in the Coliseum, the colorful midway, the many sport features along the waterfront and the varied exhibits in the 2,250,000 square feet of floor space.

The agricultural show—with livestock, sheep, swine and horses and other farm products in the judging ring—paid $125,000 in prizes. Sports events, which included the professional men's and women's swimming championships of the world, with a top prize of $5,000, aided in drawing the crowds.

Mayor Hiram McCallum of Toronto, addressing the daily directors' luncheon, suggested Saturday that in future the fair be kept open for three weeks.

He said the extra week would provide leeway for those who found themselves unable to get close to popular exhibits. Building of a huge auditorium somewhere on the grounds to attract many of the largest conventions also was suggested by the mayor.

School Attendance Up At Cowichan, Principal Reports

LAKE COWICHAN—J. F. T. Saywell, supervising principal of Lake Cowichan School District No. 66, said here today registration at Lake Cowichan schools was up 20 per cent over last term. Elementary school registration is 333 pupils and 126 for the high school. Figures are not yet compiled for other schools in District No. 66.

A special meeting will be held at Youbou school Sept. 13, and another at Lake Cowichan High School Sept. 17, to submit to ratepayers for consideration the re-allocation of moneys raised under a by-law passed earlier this year. It called for the building of a 10-room school and cafeteria and industrial arts building at Lake Cowichan, an addition to Yount school, Youbou, and a one-room school at Shaw Creek.

Tenders for the industrial arts building and Shaw Creek school exceeded the amounts allowed by the by-law. Tenders submitted on the 10-room elementary school were lower than amount allowed.

Without the approval of ratepayers, neither the Department of Education nor the school board have the authority to transfer from one project to the other.

Ratepayers will be asked to approve a plan whereby some of the savings from the 10-room school may be used to build the industrial arts building and Shaw Creek school.

Work has already been started on the 10-room school.

Suicide Blamed For New York Blast

NEW YORK (AP)—Three persons were killed and 10 injured—none severely—early Sunday in a terrific gas explosion that wrecked the fourth and fifth floors of a 17-story upper Manhattan apartment house.

Some of the injured were children cut by flying glass blown from shattered windows of the 110-family building.

Police said the blast apparently was caused by the determination of one of the victims—Eugene Hurley, 35—to commit suicide by gas. Hurley, unemployed, had threatened suicide, police said, and four gas jets were found turned on in his wrecked apartment.

The other victims, identified by police as Arthur Yammer, 28, and his wife, Rosetta, 26, lived in a one-room apartment above Hurley's.

The blast demolished 12 apartments.

Courtenay Contractor To Build 40 Dwellings

COURTENAY—A contract to build 40 houses on the south side of Courtenay for the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation has been awarded to Ivon Aven, a contractor residing here. Construction will start as soon as the land is cleared of timber. The houses will cost an estimated $250,000.

Terms For 10th Province To Be Discussed Oct. 4

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Discussions of the final terms for Newfoundland's entry into Canadian Confederation will start at Ottawa Oct. 4.

The seven-man Newfoundland delegation which will work out the final terms of union will leave this 10th provincial capital to be Oct. 3 for Ottawa.

It will meet with a Canadian group composed of the following cabinet ministers: Acting Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, External Affairs Minister Pearson, Trade Minister Howe, Finance Minister Abbott, Defence Minister Claxton, Fisheries Minister Mayhew and Resources Minister McCann.

The Newfoundland delegation will be: Commissioner Albert Walsh as chairman, Joseph R. (Joey) Smallwood and F. Gordon Bradley, leaders of the Confederate Association, Chesley A. Crosbie, leader of the party that stood for economic union with the United States, J. B. McEvoy, one-time chairman of the national convention; Philip Gruchy, manager of the Anglo-Newfoundland Development Company, and Gordon A. Winter, former president of the Newfoundland Board of Trade.

VOTED IN JULY

Newfoundlanders voted in a referendum July 22 to join Canada as a 10th province. Confederation got a 7,000-vote majority over the alternate choice, return to responsible government.

Commission government, voted out in the June 3 referendum, is continuing to run the country until Confederation is sealed. That probably won't be until next spring at least—March 31 is the best guess.

Wider Diagnostic Tests For Cancer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States Cancer Institute said today it is working out a new research program, designed to double the number of cancer cures.

The program is to be conducted in co-operation with a group of medical schools and hospitals. It will provide mass tryouts of various methods of diagnosing cancer in its early stages, the institute said.

Dr. J. R. Heller, director of the institute, explained in a statement:

"If every new cancer were diagnosed early, modern therapy could save about two-thirds of all cancer patients or twice the number now being saved."

"Independent investigators have announced diagnostic tests and published limited findings, but not organized, concerted effort has been made to evaluate the conflicting claims and put selected tests to mass trial."

"We are entering this phase of cancer investigation first, to establish whatever validity the various diagnostic tests might have, and second, to promote original investigations leading to improved or new tests."

Posted Cruiser Engineer

CMDR. (E) I. J. L. PALMER

Naval Headquarters at Ottawa today announced appointment of Cmdr. (E) Ivor J. L. Palmer, O.B.E., R.C.N., of Victoria, as engineer officer of the Esquimalt-based cruiser, H.M.C.S. Ontario.

Formerly engineer officer of H.M.C.S. Rockcliffe and engineer officer of the Pacific coast reserve fleet, Cmdr. Palmer succeeds Cmdr. (E) A. B. Arnison, O.B.E., R.C.N., also of Victoria, who becomes deputy superintendent of H.M.C. Dockyard, Esquimalt.

Cmdr. Palmer was born in Pembroke Dock, South Wales, July 24, 1908, but lived most of his life in Montreal before coming to the B.C. coast.

He joined the Royal Canadian Naval Reserve in April, 1941, and transferred to the Royal Canadian Navy as a lieutenant-commander in March, 1946.

He was awarded the O.B.E. in November, 1944, for "leadership and skill in damage control." Later he won a commendation for his prompt action in raising steam and getting H.M.C.S. Qu'Appelle under way after grounding.

On transfer to the permanent force, Cmdr. Palmer was appointed to duty with the deputy chief of naval personnel in Ottawa.

In April, 1947, he joined H.M.C.S. Uganda as engineer officer and just over a year later became engineer officer, H.M.C.S. Rockcliffe and engineer officer, reserve fleet. He was promoted to the rank of commander (E) on July 1, 1948.

St. Laurent To Direct Preparation Of Legislation For Coming Session

OTTAWA (CP) — On the shoulders of Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent will fall the main responsibility of preparing legislation for the next session of Parliament.

Mr. St. Laurent, elected last month to the leadership of the Liberal Party, will take over the prime ministership from William Lyon Mackenzie King permanently, probably some time in November. Mr. St. Laurent will be responsible for whatever measures the government brings forward, although he probably will obtain advice from Mr. King, who will continue to sit as a private member.

DATE TO BE CHOSEN

It is not known when the next session of Parliament will be called, but Mr. King indicated at a press conference last Friday that it will not be this fall. He said he saw no possibility of a session this month or next. Last year the session opened Dec. 5 and ended June 30.

At the press conference Mr. King announced that L. B. Pearson, Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs, was succeeding Mr. St. Laurent as Minister for External Affairs.

Mr. St. Laurent said he wished to be relieved of his External Affairs duties so he could devote his time to the preparation of legislation for the next session. He did not indicate what measures the government might introduce.

Possibly one of the first things will be ratification of the terms under which Newfoundland will join Canada as the 10th province.

A delegation from Newfoundland is scheduled to arrive here Oct. 4 to discuss the final terms of union.

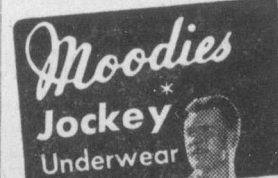

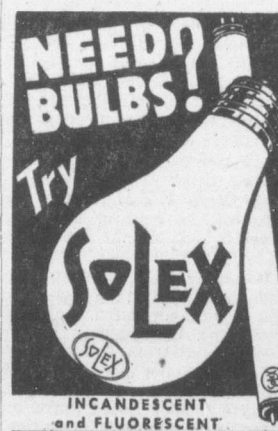

Representatives of the wholesale and retail ends of the men's shirt business will testify this week before the Prices Commission.

The first two days of the shirt probe were taken up with testimony by officials of the five biggest shirt-manufacturing companies. This week the commission will examine the other side of the picture.

Witnesses last week blamed the extreme cost of United Kingdom shirting material for some of the big rises in retail prices in Canada.

Part of this week's questioning by the commission may be an attempt to learn why Canadian mills are unable to produce enough of the lower-priced materials the manufacturers say they want.

Far East Visitors Holiday In City

Mrs. Kenneth C. Miller and Douglas.

A thrilling trip by air has brought Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Miller and their 17-month-old son Douglas from their home in Shanghai, China, to New York, and from there to Victoria, for a three-month holiday.

English born, Mrs. Miller has lived a number of years in Shanghai, traveling at an early age with her parents to the Orient.

It was in Shanghai that she met her husband, who is associated with the Chase National Bank.

Shortly before their planned wedding date, the couple were interned, along with thousands of others, in one of the seven Japanese prison camps.

"After two years in the camp, with no word of our release coming through, we decided to go on with our wedding," states Mrs. Miller.

"Just four months before our release, we were married. I had a traditional white satin wedding gown, loaned by one of my friends, bridal attendants, and even managed to have a three-tier wedding cake made from ingredients donated by other prisoners," she recalls.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were among 2,000 prisoners in one of the larger Japanese camps.

"Our diet was very limited, consisting mainly of starches, rice, cabbage, and about two and a half ounces of meat per week," Mrs. Miller explains.

"But our guards were not cruel unless the rigid instructions were not carried out," she added.

During the two-and-a-half years' internment, 12 prisoners escaped successfully from the camp, which was run on lines similar to communities.

"We had our own hospital and doctors and with a number of others I carried out nursing duties."

Mr. and Mrs. Miller with their small son are staying at Clive Apartment Hotel while in Victoria. They leave next month en route to the Orient, where they will visit at Hongkong before returning to their Shanghai home.

Country Girl, 'Miss America' Neither Drinks Nor Smokes

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (CP)—Beatrice (Bebe) Shopp, a baby-faced, grass-roots Minnesota girl, took the Miss America beauty title Saturday night after a week of competition with 34 other girls, including one from Canada.

She neither drinks nor smokes. Miss Shopp, an 18-year-old brunette who "loves to clean fish," awoke today after three hours sleep to find herself $16,000 richer than when she left her four-acre home in Canada.

These are the plums that fell at her feet: A $5,000 scholarship, a $3,000 automobile and $8,000 in contracts for personal appearances to help sell a number of commercial products.

Miss Canada, 20-year-old Jean Ferguson of Halifax, failed to place among the 15 finalists who took part in Saturday night's final events. She won the Dominion beauty title two weeks ago in Hamilton, Ont.

In 1947 Canada's beauty queen, Margaret Marshall of Toronto, placed third among the 54 competitors.

The five-foot, nine-inch Miss Shopp, from Hopkins, Minn., said in an interview she has made up her mind on these points:

She will turn down Hollywood and Broadway contracts unless they call for stage appearances in which she can play a vibrat. That was the instrument

PARENTS AND PALS, TOO

Taking them by and large, the great majority of parents love their children dearly and make many sacrifices to give them comfortable homes, good education, and even the kind of sport togs that the other kids have. But the fathers and mothers who are friends with their youngsters are almost as rare as white blackbirds.

The average parents have little more than a bare speaking acquaintance with their children. They are devoted to their Tommies and Sallies. They are kind and indulgent to them. They are frantic if they are ill. But they are not on confidential terms with them, and the whole neighborhood knows more about what the youngsters are doing and thinking than their fathers and mothers do.

MAN-TO-MAN TALKS

A brilliant and famous old man once said to me that it was the regret of his life that he had never really had a man-to-man talk with his father, for he was sure that they would have been so congenial if they had only known each other well enough to have been friends.

Probably this is a common experience, for when we think back to our own childhood most of us realize that after we outgrew our infantile babble, we never had any free talk with our parents. Perhaps this was because we stood in such awe of our fathers and mothers that we never opened our hearts to them, or because they always tacked a lecture onto any confidence we made, or made a funny story out of a secret we whispered to them. But, whatever it was, it raised a barrier that we could never break down, and that made it easier to tell things to a stranger than it did to our parents.

ABETS DELINQUENCY

This inability of fathers and mothers to make friends of their children is responsible for much of the juvenile delinquency which is such a headache and heart-ache to the world just now. For how can parents guide and protect their boys and girls if they don't know what they are thinking about and planning and doing?

If home is a place of taboos in which children have as little personal liberty as they would have in a concentration camp, and if parents never speak to their adolescent children, except to correct them, and deprive them of their foolish little childish pleasures, it is inevitable that they will drive their youngsters into doing by stealth what they are not permitted to do openly, for youth will be served.

NO AUTOCRATS

But these tragedies do not happen in families where father and mother pal up with their kids from their very infancy, and where there are no autocrats who rule the helpless children in their power with a ruthless disregard of their happiness and desires.

No foolish young girl gets into trouble when her mother is her most intimate friend who will listen with sympathy and understanding while she tells about what a grand party it was and how many cut-ins she had, and what a peachy dancer Johnny is and how she thinks maybe she is in love with him. The girls who go astray are those who have to lie and cheat to have the fun that belongs to their time of life, and whose mothers are always strangers to them.

Lucky the youngsters whose parents are also their best friends.

Party Treat—One of our most favorite tea party sandwiches is made from unsliced bread. Remove the crusts and cut the bread into fingers. Frost all sides with softened cream cheese seasoned with lemon juice and then dip in ground-roasted unblanched almonds.

Not Hard—Bavarian cream desserts sound so lavish and difficult to make but they really aren't. They have especially good flavor when apricot whole fruit nectar is used for the liquid part. Gelatin and whipped cream make them so light and fluffy they melt in your mouth.

October Bazaar—Members of Lodge Primrose No. 32, Daughters of England, made plans for a bazaar to be held Oct. 22, at their Friday evening meeting in the K. of P. Hall. Mrs. M. J. Brown presided. Reports were received on activities following the last meeting. Arrangements were discussed for a banquet to be held Dec. 10, following which election of officers will take place. Plans were also made for the membership drive and competition. It was announced that the next meeting would be Sept. 24, at 7.30, when a shower for the bazaar will be held.

NEW YORK (CP)—The pennant-winning Montreal Royals knocked Toronto Maple Leafs out of the International League playoffs Sunday by beating the Leafs 7 to 5 in the second game of a doubleheader. The Leafs won the opener 9 to 4.

The defeat enabled Rochester Red Wings, beaten 6 to 3 by Buffalo, to clinch fourth place, the circuit's last playoff spot. The Wings finished the season with 78 wins and 75 defeats for a .510 percentage. Toronto won 78 games and lost 76 for .506 mark.

Manager Jewel Ens Syracuse Chiefs nailed down third place by splitting a doubleheader with the runner-up Newark Bears. The Chiefs won the first game 4 to

The playoffs are scheduled to get underway Tuesday-night with Rochester at Montreal and Syracuse at Newark. Both series are best-of-seven affairs. The two winners will then meet in another best-of-seven series to determine the circuit's entry in the junior world series against the American Association's play-off winner.

Montreal led the league virtually throughout the season this year. There was no repetition of last year's sensational finish when the Royals, after being far ahead of the pack, lost first place to Jersey City on the final day of play.

Pope Pius Appeals To World Scientists

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius appealed Sunday to men of science to turn their weapons of "brute force" into instruments for good.

The Pontiff, talking to about 500,000 persons massed in St. Peter's Square, called for a Christian victory over atheism, materialism and social misery.

The universe, he said, has been changed by such scientific developments as the release of atomic energy, while only "Christ's church remains unchanged."

The leaders of this "century of technology need the guidance of religion," the Pope said.

Delivering his fifth, public address during the last 12 days, the frail, 72-year-old Pontiff spoke in clear, ringing tones. Among his audience were more than 250,000 young men of the church's politically-militant Catholic Action Youth, here to celebrate the 80th anniversary of its founding.

Oldest Ex-Cadet Of Military College

Maj.-Gen. A. Bowen Perry, ex-commissioner of the R.C.M.P. in the days when it was the Northwest Mounted Police, still remembers well his graduation from Royal Military College 72 years ago. At 88 years old, the general, who lives in Ottawa with his daughter and son-in-law, is still very active. He is pictured above as he concentrates on a play in a game of solitaire. (Canadian Army Photo)

OTTAWA—When Hon. Brooke Claxton, Minister of National Defence, officially opens the Tri-service Royal Military College at Kingston, Ont., next Monday, the oldest ex-R.M.C. cadet present at the ceremony will undoubtedly be Maj.-Gen. A. Perry, C.M.G.

The 88-year-old general is the only surviving member of the original class of 18 who attended

R.M.C. in 1876 when the college first opened. He graduated four years later in 1880 winner of the Governor-General's gold and silver medals as the most proficient cadet of his class.

General Perry was born in Ontario on Aug. 21, 1860, and has lived a colorful, story-book life. After graduation from R.M.C. he was appointed lieutenant in the Royal Engineers and served in England, retiring the following year to accept a position on the staff of the Geological Survey of Canada. In 1882 he was appointed to the Northwest Mounted Police and was promoted to superintendent in 1886 for his services in the Northwest rebellion.

In the ensuing years General Perry held many important posts with the famous Northwest Mounted, being in command of detachments in Macleod, Calgary, Prince Albert, Regina and in British Columbia.

Member Of Shackleton Expedition Dr. George Munro Ross Dies At 78

CALGARY (CP)—Funeral services will be held here Wednesday for Dr. George Munro Ross, one of the last survivors of the 1914 ill-fated Shackleton Polar expedition. Dr. Ross, 78, died in hospital Sunday following a three-month illness.

Born at Lac St. John, Que., Dr. Ross had practised medicine in Alberta since 1920. A graduate of New York University, he later did post-graduate work at the University of Chicago. Dr. Ross received a Ph.D. degree at the University of Illinois and then returned to Canada.

ESTABLISHED POST

Unable to settle down to ordinary practitioner work, Dr. Ross joined the Hudson's Bay Company as a surgeon. He established a post for the company at Seven Islands on the Labrador coast, spending several years in that area.

To aid in missionary work among the Indian tribes, Dr. Ross, who spoke at least four tribal dialects, worked in collaboration with the late Bishop R. Rensselaer in translating Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress and many Moodie and Sankey hymns into Indian.

When Eir Ernest Shackleton formed an Antarctic expedition early in 1914, Dr. Ross applied for the position of ship's surgeon on the Erebus, then fitting out in Scotland for the trip.

The Erebus was caught in the icefloes during the voyage and eventually lost. Sir Ernest and a few survivors managed to get to New Zealand, while Dr. Ross returned to Montreal, where he volunteered for service with the R.C.A.M.C. and went overseas.

HOSPITAL INSPECTOR

He took over the post of inspector of Canadian Hospitals in England and France and later in occupied Germany. One of the last Canadians to leave Germany, Dr. Ross returned to Montreal for a brief spell, then came west in 1920.

Relatives surviving him include four brothers, Art Ross, vice-president and general manager of Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League; Dr. Colin Ross of Montreal; Dr. T. R. Ross of Drumheller, Alta.; Alexander of Sudbury, Ont.; one son, Douglas of Seven Islands, Labrador, and one daughter, Mrs. Charles Harding of Montreal.

Another brother, Dr. Simon Ross, practised in Philadelphia until his death a short time ago.

Last Summer Days Making Many Acres Of Forest Hazardous

WINNIPEG (CP)—Across Canada the last days of summer are making millions of acres of forest tinder-dry—easy victims for forest fires which again this year are eating into Canada's vast woodland resources. The bill will come to something more than $5,000,000.

Manitoba alone—a province with one of the lesser forest fire problems—will have lost between $100,000 and $150,000 before snowfall.

In an average year rangers combat 328 fires in Manitoba. Across the country, the figure is 5,515. And the area burned out in Canada in a year is 2,500,000 acres.

To date this year, Manitoba considers itself lucky. The chief forest fires, which so far number more than 200, have occurred in mainly "inaccessible" areas. Losses in timber destroyed are below average although acreage burned is above average.

However, forestry officials warn a bad fall season could occur now that the leaves have started to fall and forests are dry.

The biggest menace to the forest is the careless smoker. He causes 23 per cent of all fires. Lightning is next at 20 per cent and campfires account for 15 per cent.

Smaller percentages of fires are caused by settlers, by persons who set blazes for mischief or malice, by sparks from locomotives, industrial operations and public works.

The mines and resources department, administrators of Canada's national forests, warns: "Be careful with fire. Burnt forests build no homes. Prevent forest waste."

They're Off And Running At 1948 Race Season Inaugural

With the clang of the starter's bell, eight thoroughbreds break from the gate at the start of the second race on Saturday's opening day card at the Willows. Burma Pete, No. 6, romped home in front with Van Vic, No. 2, second and Happy Bob, third.

In third position here as they enter the stretch, Friary Destrer, No. 1, came on to overtake the pacesetters, Tusker, No. 2, and Burlake, No. 3, to win the six-furlong dash, opening race on the card.

The form charts took a beating as did the favorites Saturday as the 1948 racing season swung into being at the Willows Race Track with a fair-sized crowd on hand for the opening festivities of the 14-day program.

His Brother, solid choice at 1 to 4 to take the Esquimalt Handicap, feature race on the opening day card, ran true to the pattern set in the previous races as he took second money behind Pea Soup, five-year-old gelding owned by Bridle Falls Ranch.

Pea Soup, after throwing off the strong challenge of Gallamar in the early stages, had enough left in the final one-eighth to hold His Brother in check in the drive to tie the wire. Winning by three-quarters of a length, Pea Soup returned his backers $17.45 for a win ticket.

In all, four of the winners on the seven-race card returned win prices in double figures with the daily double, Friary Destrer in the first and Burma Pete in the second combining for a payoff of $50.30.

QUINELLA $80.25

The quinella also saw a handsome dividend returned for backers of Friarworth and No Count as they paced the field from wire to wire in the one-mile event for the neat sum of $80.25.

Friarworth, ridden by Jockey Martinez returned the largest price of the day, $24.60.

In the third event, Jockey Avelino Gomez scored on Western Comet for a $19.30 payoff. Shastone, the favorite, twice dumped jockey Marvin Moncrief, once before the race and again at the start.

Aboard Bonnie Park in the fourth, Gomez romped home on his third straight winner—he rode Burma Pete in the second and Western Comet in the third—by leading from start to finish. Bonnie Park paid $6.15, $3.90 and $2.55.

Ted Johnson scored two firsts to take runner-up honors to Gomez in the initial day's meeting. Up on Friary Destrer in the first, Johnson then brought Frisco Boy down in front in the fifth with longshot Paris Doll second and Masseter third.

Port Angeles Coming For Tilt With Cougars

Fall is in the air.

And with the cool autumn weather comes one of Canada's national sports back to Victoria Saturday under the lights at Athletic Park with Victoria's entry in the Pacific Coast grid league meeting Port Angeles in an exhibition game at 8.

Canadian football, which in other parts of the Dominion is one of the greatest drawing cards on the fall sports agenda, is on the way back in the city after a decline during the past two years.

Directors of the Cougars this year enlisted the services of Lou Mogul, long-time Canadian football great of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers to coach the local gridgers.

Since Mogul's arrival in the city he has been a busy man as he imparted some of his pent-up knowledge to the city's coming gridgers.

HARD PRACTICE

The team has been practising diligently for months in preparation for the coast loop schedule and although bound to be short on experience the boys are showing improvement with every workout.

The Port Angeles team should prove interesting and instructive foes for the Cougars. Versed in football right from high school days the Americans are well drilled in the fundamentals of the American game and in an earlier tilt defeated the Cougars while playing under American rules.

Saturday, however, the game is scheduled for the Canadian code and Mogul's Cougars should have a little of the edge in their own brand of ball.

The Port Angeles squad is big and fast and boasts a few ex-American college players now in the armed forces and stationed in vicinity of the Washington town.

Mogul wouldn't name a starting team today, but did say that he would be in uniform for 60 minutes if necessary. Mogul's presence in the line should serve to settle down the younger members of the team.

With a line averaging 185 pounds in weight and a backfield of 160 pounds, the Cougars will

Navy Scores Three Runs In Ninth To Turn Back Bombers

Navy prolonged the Rithet Cup city baseball finals by nipping Ben's Bombers 7 to 5 in the third game of the best-of-five series yesterday. Bombers had previously won two straight. Fourth game is scheduled tonight at Beacon Hill Park, starting at 6.

Lloyd Cann started for Bombers, but went out in the eighth in favor of Bill Prior with the score tied 4 to 4. Bombers fell apart defensively in the last frame, committing three errors, which together with Chester Padgett's double and a stolen base, gave Tars three runs, all unearned, and the ball game.

Prior was charged with the loss. Winners had a 4 to 1 lead by the second frame, but the league champs scored singletons in the third, fifth and sixth to tie the score. After Navy's three-run rally in the top of the ninth, losers added their final score with an unearned run in the last inning.

Although nipped for 11 safeties, Jeff Worrell hurled a good game for Navy, taking eight on strikes and passing only one. Cann gave up seven hits and Prior one.

Rookie Wright, Bombers' shortstop, again led the stickers with a triple, double and single in four trips.

Short scores follow:

Athletics Play To 147,746 Fans

Club Closes Out Home Season With Record Attendance; Spokane Wins

Victoria Athletics closed out another Western International League baseball season here Saturday night with a season attendance of 147,746. The total bettered last year's mark by 17,945 and established a new high for the sport in this city. Victoria will finish second to Spokane in total attendance throughout the class B circuit.

Athletics established another first in baseball in Victoria Saturday when the second game of their scheduled twin bill against Yakima Packers was called off in the bottom half of the fifth inning owing to fog. The Athletics were in front 10 to 0 after winning the afternoon engagement 8 to 3.

Two final games were marked by a pair of smart pitching stands by southpaw Jim Propst and hard-throwing right-hander, Del Owens. In receiving credit for the win in the afternoon Propst marked up his 18th victory of the season while Owens made it number 16 at night. Owens had the distinction of pitching Victoria wins in both the first and final games of the home season. In the opener back in April he set down Spokane 10 to 3.

STRIKES OUT 15

In the afternoon affair Propst came up with 15 strikeouts and made only one mistake, tossing up a home run pitch to Bill Barisoff in the sixth inning after giving up a pair of walks. Propst gave up five hits in all, Barisoff getting three of them.

The abbreviated night game saw Owens toss a two-hitter and breeze home after his teammates got him a 6 to 0 lead in the first inning. The two losing pitchers were Bill Freeman and the veteran Hub Kittle.

Victoria's Archie Wilson projected his position at the top of the W.I.L. batting averages by picking up five hits in nine trips. Jack Palmer made sure of staying in the charmed .300 circle with one hit in seven appearances. Palmer played his last game with the club Saturday night. Charlie Balassi also had a good day with the stick getting five for nine while Vic Buccola had three for five.

With the night game halted for half an hour before being finally called members of the Athletics and Hub Kittle, Yakima manager, put on a little impromptu show to entertain the fans. Kittle contributed a couple of songs. Lenny Kasparovich put on his version of "Casey At The Bat," several of the Athletics staged a shadow ball game while Vic Buccola put on his bat balancing act. As a wind-up Manager Ted Norbet thanked the fans for their fine support and paid tribute to his players for their hustle during the long season.

Athletics are in Salem today to open their final three-game series tonight.

Sunday's games saw Bremerton Bluejackets sweep a doubleheader from Vancouver. Caps 8 to 1 and 19 to 1 to really tighten their scramble with Spokane for the pennant. Spokane won a single encounter from Salem 8 to 7 on pinch-hitter John Cordell's single in the ninth inning.

Spokane today leads Bremerton by three percentage points. George Nicholas and Vic Martineau checked in with a pair of smart pitching jobs as Tacoma wound up its home season with 8 to 3 and 5 to 3 wins over Wenatchee.

Pittsburgh Gains In Pennant Drive

The odds are against them, but if Billy Meyer and his Pittsburgh Pirates win the National League pennant, he'll be the first manager in major league history to reach the top with a club that finished last—or tied for it—the preceding year.

Generally picked for fifth place at the best, the second place Bucs today are three games behind the front-running Boston Braves. However, they were all even with the hubmen in the important losing column. Each team has lost 58 games. The Braves have played and won six more games than the Pirates.

Pittsburgh picked up a half-game on the Braves yesterday, defeating Chicago Cubs, 7 to 3, while Philadelphia Phils were holding Boston to a split in their doubleheader. The Phils won the opener, 6 to 4, but the Braves came back to win the 13-inning nightcap, 2 to 1.

It was a bad day for Boston as the American League leading Red Sox saw their first-place margin shrink a full game when they were beaten by the fourth-place Philadelphia Athletics, while the runner-up New York Yankees and the third-place Cleveland Indians won.

Staging a six-run ninth-inning rally, the A's whipped the Red Sox, 10 to 4, to cut Boston's lead

The Indians defeated St. Louis Browns, 6 to 4, in the first game of their doubleheader in Cleveland. The second game ended in a 3 to 3 tie with darkness ending the contest after 12 innings. Totem Pole Golf Title Escapes Verley Again

For the second straight year, Gordon Verley of Uplands Golf Club, Victoria, appeared in the finals of the Totem Pole golf championship at Jasper Park and for the second time he lost out in the 36-hole finals of the 19-year-old tournament.

On Saturday Verley was defeated by J. Edgar Green of Seattle in the final, 2 and 1. Behind most of the way Verley was at one time in the morning round four holes down but he rallied strongly to square the match at the turn. On the afternoon Green took the lead on the first hole and never looked back.

Last year Verley gained the finals only to be beaten by Bing Crosby in sensational fashion on the last hole when the crooner chipped in for the title.

Verley's only lead in the match came on the first hole. Green promptly tied it up at the second and went ahead at the third. He held a 4 up margin at the turn. Some sparkling golf on the incoming nine enabled Verley to square the match at the lunch-time interval.

However, it just wasn't his day. Green grabbed the 19th and held his edge to the turn at the 27th. Verley was in the traps on the 30th and Green went 2 up. Verley won the 31st but Green regained his margin on the 32nd. A 30-foot putt by Verley on the 34th electrified the crowd and cut Green's edge once more. Green's safe four on the 35th decided the championship.

Hon. J. E. Bowen, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, presented prizes to winners.

Max Macdonald, Lacrosse Coach, Dies In Accident

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP)—A smouldering fire in the mattress of his bed early Sunday caused the death by asphyxiation of Maxwell "Max" Paul Macdonald, coach of the New Westminster Adanacs, Dominion lacrosse champions. He was 40.

MacDonald, with relatives, was staying at a summer home at nearby Beach Grove.

His brother, Kenneth, found the lacrosse coach unconscious in the bed in his room. An inhalator squad worked on Macdonald for some time without success. The fire was quickly extinguished without causing much damage.

MacDonald came here 30 years ago from Rouleau, Sask., where he was born. He was one of the original founders and members of the Adanacs lacrosse team, retiring from play in 1937, and taking over the coaching job three years ago when the team was re-organized following the Second World War.

Funeral services are tentatively planned for Wednesday.

MacDonald's death will interrupt the current Intercity League playoff finals, in which Adanacs now hold a two-to-one game lead over Vancouver Burrards. The fourth game, scheduled for tonight, has been postponed until Wednesday or Thursday night, following a meeting Sunday of lacrosse commissioners.

Good Deer, Grouse Bags As Hunting Season Ushered In

The lower island game supply, judged on the bags of hunters checked over the week-end by local game wardens, was classed today as pretty good by Inspector George Stevenson, island chief for the B.C. Game Department.

Some cars coming down the Island Highway Saturday and Sunday displayed evidence on front mudguards of some of the hunting fraternity having success in their first trips into the hinterland this season seeking buck deer.

Deer, blue grouse and band-tailed pigeons became legal targets for the licensed nimrods on Saturday.

While bird bags could not be seen in the moving cars, Insp. Stevenson said that check points on the Cowichan Road and elsewhere on the lower island showed almost every car had blues. "There were some limits and I hardly encountered any hunters who did not have some," he said.

He reported Eagle Heights, Koksilah River country, Jordan River, end of steel at Port Renfrew and Cowichan produced some good grouse shooting, with deer also being taken in a fair number in those areas. Highland District and Sooke also produced some nice bags.

Both the Sylvester U-drive buck deer competition and the deer competition for members of the Victoria Fish and Game Protective Association, drew entries.

Campbell River and Sayward, fertile game country, drew what is estimated as the largest crowd of hunters in the game season history of the area. Not many have returned from up there to get an indication of the 1948 offering of game.

CUBS BUY HACKER

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago Cubs Saturday announced the purchase of Warren Hacker, 23-year-old right-handed pitcher, from the Shreveport club of the Texas League. Hacker has won 16 games and lost 11.

Montreal Alouettes Pull Major Surprise

Football got down to large-scale business during the week-end as the opening of the venerable Ontario Rugby Football Union meant there was action among 10 of the 11 teams who are in the hunt for the Grey Cup this season.

The biggest upset in the five Saturday games came when Montreal Alouettes toppled Ottawa Rough Riders from the unbeaten ranks—leaving only Toronto Argonauts, Calgary Stampeders, Toronto Beavers Indians and Hamilton Tigers with undefeated status.

The Stampeders were idle Saturday when Winnipeg Blue Bombers edged Saskatchewan Rough Riders 16 to 13 in the only Western Canada League game. But the Stamps lay their four-game victory streak on the line tonight at home against the second-place Blue Bombers.

Even more unexpected than Montreal's 11 to 8 victory over Ottawa in the Big Four League was the auspicious beginning of Hamilton in their first season in the O.R.F.U. in 40 years. The Tigers, who quit the big four in the off-season, swamped Windsor Rockets, 60 to 1, largely on the pass-pitching of Frankie Filchok.

TAKE OVER SECOND

Blue Bombers took over second place in the Western Canada League by coming from behind to beat Saskatchewan at Regina for their second victory in five starts. The Roughriders led 13 to 5 in the fourth quarter but Bud Irving and Bob Sandberg both counted majors, the latter converted by Don Hiney.

The Argos showed they will be the team to beat for their fourth straight Dominion title when they came from behind to defeat Frank Gnu's Wildcats, 25 to 13, at Toronto. It was the champions third victory without a loss and set the stage for a great battle when they clash for the first time with Ottawa at Toronto next Saturday.

Ted Reeve's Beavers Indians got off on the right foot at Sarnia when they defeated the Imperials 8 to 2 to move into a first-place tie in the O.R.F.U. with the Tigers.

An inside kick, a play almost pushed out of football by the forward pass, gave the Combines their victory. Veteran Bobby Porter lifted the kick over the goal-line where Johnny Lake took it for a third-quarter touchdown, that Don Crowe converted.

SCORE 10 MAJORS

The Tigers ran up 10 touchdowns against Windsor before a slim crowd of 3,000 at Hamilton. Filchok threw five forwards for touchdowns—three of them to Jack Stewart who topped in-

Oak Bay, Five C's Register Wins In League Cricket

Saturday's league cricket matches saw Oak Bay and Five C's win. The former put on 75 runs for four wickets to Albions' 70 while the C's won from Incogs 43 to 13.

Going in to bat first Albions found runs hard to get with Corby's 10 being high. For Oak Bay Frank Harrison knocked up 27 not out while Jack Sparks contributed a like total before being bowled by Mason. Sparks led the Oak Bay bowlers with seven wickets for 36 runs.

Alan Griffin was high bat for the C's in their low scoring match with Incogs, putting on 19 runs. A second innings was played during which Incogs increased their total to 65 before declaring. However, Five C's played to the time limit and the score reverted to the first innings count.

Jack Payne and Jim Richards of the C's had smart bowling records, the former lifting eight wickets for four runs and Richards two for two.

dividual scorers with his 15 points. Gerry Walsh and Jack Harper each scored two majors. Alouettes took advantage of Ottawa miscues to turn in their first victory in three starts in the Big Four. Playing before 11,000 fans at Ottawa, Alouettes took their 11 to 0 lead into the second half and it was a case from then on of trying to stave off Ottawa's finishing offensive. But the Montreals held them to a scoreless standoff in the final quarter after the Riders scored a safety touch and a converted touchdown in the third quarter.

United's Home Soccer Season Opens Sept. 25

Roy Barnes, manager of the Victoria United soccer team, stated today that the first game of the 1948 Pacific Coast League soccer season would take place in Victoria Sept. 25 and not this Saturday as announced in a Canadian Press dispatch from Vancouver Saturday.

Scheduled to play New Westminster Royals, new entry in the league this season, the United have had the date put back for various reasons, mainly because the club is not in shape for a game this week. Further announcements are expected later in the week.

Vancouver City and North Shore will meet in the first game of the season at Vancouver Saturday. St. Andrews, Dominion finalists, are scheduled to start the following week.

Strength of the New Westminster club is still unknown. They face the first league game with only a handful of letters from English players who might be here soon. Others are Bernie Rosen from Winnipeg, Dave Cairns, John Winning, a Scottish

Rochon Lone Canadian Survivor In U.S. Meet

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Only 48 hours old, the national tennis championships settled down today into a battle between the young and the aged, competitively speaking.

Leading the wide open scrap for the men's singles' title vacated by Jack Kramer is a trio of tennis "oldsters"—Davis Cup veterans Frank Parker, Billy Talbert and Gardner Mulloy.

But blocking their path in this most unpredictable of all net scrambles are, at least, a dozen young men, most of them in their early 20's, who will be among the United States' internationalists in the near future.

Henri Rochon, Canadian Davis Cup star from Montreal, is the only survivor of a Canadian contingent of four Montreal players.

The southpaw insurance salesmen advanced Saturday to the man advanced Saturday to the second round by overcoming Charles Matman of New York, 6-3, 6-6, 6-3.

Brendan Macken, another Canadian Davis Cup player, his sister Pat and Elaine Flides, were eliminated in the first round. Brendan, plagued this season with illness and injuries, bowed Saturday to Harry Hopman, former Australian Davis Cupper, 6-2, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

ONESIDED DEFEATS
In the women's singles Miss Macken was defeated by Mrs. Helen P. Ribbany of Boston in straight sets 6-0, 6-3. Miss Flides lost to Mrs. Elfi Carroll of New York, 6-0, 6-4.

Most highly rated among the youngsters is Bob Falkenberg of Hollywood, the 22-year-old Wimbledon champion, seeded fourth. Falkenberg drew a first-round bye and makes his first appearance against George Richards of Los Angeles today.

But the other seeded newcomers—Harry Likas of San Francisco, Earl Cochell of San Francisco, Vic Selxas of Philadelphia and Dick Gonzales of Los Angeles, ranked sixth, seventh and eighth—progressed to the third round along with the top-seeded Davis Cup trio.

Hiberson, Lea Retain Golf Buttons

Eric Hiberson and Ken Lea, Uplands Club, retained their hold on the city golf buttons Sunday by defeating their clubmates and challengers, Frank Clarkson and Alex Briggs, 2 and 1.

Winners had a best ball of 70 to the losers 73. Best ball for the foursome was 66. Briggs shot an eagle two on the 255-yard 13th hole.

Next challengers are Harold Lineham and Laurie Kerr of Colwood.

Montreal Carsteels Lose To U.S. Club

CHICAGO (AP)—An all-star soccer team of the Chicago National League yesterday defeated Montreal Carsteels 3 to 1 in the second and final game of their series for the Joseph Triner trophy, emblematic of the North American championship.

The winner was determined on a total-goals basis. The all-stars, who had held the Canadian champions to a 3 to 3 tie in their first meeting in Montreal, thus captured the trophy six goals to four.

Anderson Takes Lead In Uplands Cup Golf

Shooting one of the best rounds of his career, Darrel Anderson took the lead at the end of the first 18 holes of the Uplands Cup golf tournament Sunday with a net 63. Anderson's handicap was 14.

A. E. Irish wound up in second place with an 81-56 with L. J. Hiberson third with 74-67. Final 18 holes of the 36-hole competition will be played this week-end.

Hammer! Paint! Skill!

All are necessary to improve the appearance of your car. A hammer and paint supply will be found in most garages... but a skilled staff in only a few. We are pleased to state that our Paint and Body Repair Staff are truly experts, ready to serve you.

Let's look at VALUE!

There's only one way to judge real car value, and that is—check and compare! PLYMOUTH, in the low-priced field, offers the greater comfort and safety of Super-Cushion tires on new, wider Safety-Rim Wheels... the added protection of 6-cylinder Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes... the smooth, silky performance of Floating Power.

But this is only part of the great PLYMOUTH-VALUE story. Study the chart at the right. You'll see that Plymouth owners have enjoyed these features for years as STANDARD equipment—but only now are some of them being made available either on car "A" or car "B". Is it any wonder that people say—"You get the good things FIRST from Chrysler!"

Tips On Golf Rules

By ROBERT FOULIS

STROKE PLAY—PLAYER OMITS TO HOLE OUT

While waiting on the bus at the corner of Newport and Central a few years ago, I strolled across the street and entered the links of the Victoria Golf Club, close to the 15th green. This was a big day at Oak Bay as the qualifying round of the city championship was being played. I saw one of the competitors play a nice chip-shot. He examined his short two-foot putt long enough to realize it was missable. After taking 2 little practice swings, he studied it again—then missed it. With a roar like an angry bull, he picked up his ball! Winding himself up like a baseball pitcher, he threw the ball with all his force on the green at his feet. Then he picked it up and stood aside looking at the innocent ball while his fellow-competitor holed out.

As this young fellow left the green there was a look of pain and mental tension on his face. I thought of saying to him: "Before striking off at the next tee, go back to the green, replace your ball on the lip, count 2 penalty strokes, and hole out—or be disqualified."

Thousand Canvassers Sought For Community Chest Drive

"There will be a job for every one in next month's Community Chest drive in Greater Victoria," said Mrs. A. H. Cox, chairman of the women's division of the chest, at a meeting at the home of Miss Sara Spencer, 1040 Moss Street, Friday afternoon. There was a good turnout of members of the division and of representatives of the 19 welfare agencies assisted by the chest from year to year.

It was intimated that from 750 to 1,000 canvassers will be needed for next month's undertaking. It was felt that this year's canvass must be more intensive and more all-embracing than that of last year, when only 75 per cent of the required objective was realized. The meeting was reminded that in the campaign of last October approximately only one-third of the householders of the Greater Victoria area contributed to the chest. This, it was added, went to make for one of the lowest showings in the whole of Canada, in spite of the fact that Victoria is officially credited with being unexcelled in the Dominion from the important standpoint of per capita wealth.

APPEAL FOR TEAM CAPTAINS

All the agencies represented at the meeting were asked to furnish all team captains and canvassers possible. The general public was asked to do the same.

thing. Names and addresses of all prepared to assist in the drive may be communicated to Mrs. Cox or to chest headquarters at 1234 Pandora Avenue.

It was emphasized by various speakers at the meeting that the public needs to be educated more to the practical value of the Community Chest idea. It was pointed out that the chest principle unites people of all faiths, all political beliefs, and all walks of life, to plan and work together for the good of the whole community. It was also emphasized that instead of turning loose on the city and adjoining municipalities 19 separate appeals the Community Chest unites all these appeals into one campaign, with one big goal to meet many big needs.

Reporting for the Family Welfare and Children's Aid Organization, Miss Mildred Wright, superintendent, emphasized the serious financial position of this agency owing to the failure to raise adequate money in last year's campaign. "We are faced with the prospect of going broke at the end of this month and of being unable to carry on," said Miss Wright.

Reporting for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, Miss Dorothy Stark deplored the fact that there have been some "flat refusals" already to canvass in this year's chest campaign.

Woman Suffers Broken Kneecap In Auto Accident

Mrs. Margaret MacIntosh, Cordova Bay Road, was taken to Jubilee Hospital by Saanich police Sunday night suffering from a fractured left knee cap sustained in an accident opposite the Mount Douglas ranch on Cordova Bay Road.

The Austin saloon car she was driving was in collision with a 1939 Packard sedan driven by Mrs. Laura Mitchell, 724 Newport Avenue, Sgt. Jack Hamilton, who attended with Constable David Shepherd, reported. Collision occurred at 9, the Mitchell car proceeding east and the other in the opposite direction.

Both vehicles had children in them, but none were hurt. The small car sustained damage estimated at between $150 and $200 and the Packard's damage was figured at about $50.

Police held Mrs. Mitchell on a charge of dangerous driving. She was later released on $100 bail.

Case was remanded to Thursday without plea or election.

Dr. R. M. Petrie will speak on "The New and Old in Telescopes" at a meeting of the Real Estate Board Wednesday at the Empress at noon.

Community Chest Dollars At Work

Social workers have their satisfactions as well as their concerns as they go about their work. Talk with Mrs. Edith Brindley, the dynamic director of the Esquimalt Community Centre, at 1123 Colville Road, and you will find that what cheers her most in her daily round is the happiness she has been enabled to bring into the lives of children associated with the centre.

Here is a note from a youngster received at the centre, and it is typical of many such:

"Dear Mrs. Brindley, I like your club very much. I shur have fun. Thanks for the rest. I hope. Thanks for the club. Your friend, G. D."

The Esquimalt Community Centre is another agency supported by the Greater Victoria Community Chest. It has become a rapidly expanding institution, steadily branching out in recreational and vocational pursuits that make a distinct appeal to persons of all ages. The centre prides itself on the fact that it has succeeded in large degree in getting children off the streets and out of back alleys, where they amused themselves as best they could, and into helpful, supervised activities.

They are breaking new ground at the Esquimalt Community Centre in imparting to adults interest and instruction in social leadership. This takes the form of an organization known as the Voluntary Social Workers Club. It is said to be the only organization of its kind in the entire Greater Victoria area. It is composed of adults who are interested in children and in the well-being of other people, and who want to make the community in which they live a better place for themselves and for the children growing up in it. A series of classes in welfare and community work is held every Tuesday evening.

The Esquimalt Community Centre also realizes the value of the aid it receives from the Community Chest. "Without the aid of the Chest we couldn't finance activities for the children," we were told.

The Community Chest dollar helps persons of all ages. It strives to aid the very young as well as the very old.

Victoria Youth Not Seriously Hurt In Up-Island Hunting Accident

Mrs. Frederick L. Waters, 729 Connaught Street, reported this morning that her son, 19-year-old Harry Waters, Victoria's first casualty for the opening of the 1948 hunting season, is not seriously hurt and is expected to be returned home within a few days from the Campbell River hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Waters journeyed to Campbell River Sunday to see their son in hospital.

"He was peppered with bird-shot around one side and the abdomen, but was feeling quite a lot better when we saw him," said Mrs. Waters.

She reported the doctor wished to keep Harry under observation for a day or so in case complications set in. When he is released at the up-island hunting and fishing resort, the 19-year-old hunter will be returned to his home. He has had many pellets removed from his body.

Harry Waters is the youngest of two sons. He is employed at Ramsay & Harris Foundry. He has one other brother and two sisters.

The local casualty was one of three recorded by police for the opening days of the new open season on Vancouver Island.

Also in the Campbell River area, Robert Lewis, 23, of Quathlasi Cove, in that area, suffered a facial gunshot wound. He was flown to hospital in Vancouver.

Lewis may lose one eye as a result of his wound, it has been indicated.

Bay, suffered a thumb injury by gunshot. How he sustained this has not been reported. He got a deer before being wounded, however. This occurred in the Honeymoon Bay area.

The wounded Victoria boy was hunting with two other local men, Edward Campbell of R.R. 1 Royal Oak, and William Law, 1335 Arm Street. Provincial Police say the accident occurred when this group and another party got too close together in the woods.

Inspector George Stevenson of the game department reported hunters on the lower island behaved themselves well. No casualties have been reported.

500 Delegates To Attend Veterans' Convention Here

Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans will head for Victoria early in October for the convention at the Empress Hotel, Oct. 5 to 9. Five hundred delegates are expected to attend the convention.

"The story of the association in Canada is unique and unparalleled in the history of veterans' organizations and in its long and glorious 'Shoulder to Shoulder' activities for 108 years. Veterans have fought in: 1812-14 war in Canada; Crimean campaign; Indian Mutiny in 1858; Fenian Raids of 1866 and 1870; Northwest Rebellion of 1885; South African War 1899-1902; First World War and the last one," an officer of the organization points out.

"From the hundreds of thousands of young Canadian soldiers who served during World War II on land, sea and in the air, have come young blood who will be able to carry on the tradition and service of this organization. The Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans exist only for the purpose of furthering the cause of the veteran who served Canada as a good citizen equally in the days of war and days of peace.

"The Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans is the only veteran organization granted a Royal Charter and one of three associations which are allowed to wear the Royal Purple. It is non-political and non-sectarian."

Chamber Directors Invited To Lunch

Directors of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce have been invited by Earl O. Shreve, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, to be guests at a luncheon to be held in the Empress Hotel Sept. 27.

The luncheon will mark the conclusion of a three-day conference in this city of the American chamber's board of directors. About 80 United States business men will be here for the conference.

Navy Will Concentrate On Anti-Submarine Training

The Royal Canadian Navy's objective in training today is in anti-submarine warfare, according to Rear-Admiral H. G. DeWolf, C.B.E., D.S.O., D.S.C., R.C.N., new Flag Officer Pacific Coast.

At his first press conference as Flag Officer Pacific Coast today, Admiral DeWolf said the R.C.N. had found that its main job during World War II was anti-submarine warfare and the navy is retaining that as its main objective in today's training.

The present situation is that there is no surface fleet in existence to constitute any danger to the British-American combination, so the only sea-borne danger would appear to be that of submarines, he said.

NO SURFACE SHIPS

There is one point about the navy, he continued, and that is that surface ships take so long to build that it is almost impossible to build in secret. Generally rival powers know they are being built, and no large-scale building of surface warships is going on today in foreign countries so far as is known.

However, Admiral DeWolf added, an undersea fleet is a different thing.

Questioned regarding the co-operation of U.S. and Canadian naval units, the admiral said the R.C.N. is training to co-operate with both British and U.S. naval forces whenever possible and no opportunity for such practice is ever missed.

Turning to recruiting, the admiral noted the recent increase to 10,000 in the limit on strength of naval personnel for the permanent force. He agreed that the rate of recruiting had not been great but expects a higher rate of entry to begin now that the navy has started its recruiting drive this month.

He said he was not sure that an increase in the number of naval personnel in the west coast establishments would mean taking ships out of the reserve fleet here but he said it would mean more ships in service on the Pacific.

It is intended, over a period of time, to adjust the strength of the Pacific coast destroyer division so that the ships are more of one type, he said.

NO NEW CARRIER

He saw no indication that Canada would get a new aircraft carrier or that the present carrier, H.M.C.S. Magnificent, would be stationed on this coast.

Turning to the question of recruiting for the naval reserve, he said that he did not expect the problem of limitation to arrive for some years in view of the recent increase of authorized strength from 4,400 to 7,500.

He also expressed the opinion there would be no reduction of the strength of ships in the reserve fleet. They have already been trimmed to the bare minimum and the navy certainly will not let any more go, he said.

Among the Vancouver artists to perform at Banff Tuesday is Miss Ruth Thomas, who for the past year has been studying in Vancouver. Miss Thomas trained here with Virginia Ryan and the Cornish Ballet School, Seattle, and during the summer appeared with "Theatre Under the Stars."

'Fury At Furnace Creek,' Atlas Bill

The pioneers who lived in dread of Indian massacres had 20 times a better chance of living than does today's motorist. Frances Richardson, head of Twentieth Century-Fox's research library, discovered that while she was thumbing through old books and newspapers for material for "Fury at Furnace Creek," a saga of the winning of the west, which co-stars Victor Mature and Coleen Gray and opens today at the Atlas Theatre. "Today's death rate by accident is roughly 20 times that of the settlers in Arizona in the 1880's and 1890's she said.

DOMINION THEATRE

"Adventures of Casanova," Eagle Lion's epic romance of the days of the world's greatest lover-adventurer, is currently at the Dominion Theatre.

Filmed entirely on location in Mexico, "Adventures of Casanova," co-stars Arturo de Cordova, Lucille Bremer, Turhan Bey and Noreen Nash. John Sutton and George Tobias head a supporting cast, directed by Roberto Gavaldon. Leonard Plicker produced from a screenplay by Crane Wilbur, Walter Bullock and Karen DeWolf.

'A Foreign Affair' On Royal Screen

The picture-wise team of Chas Brackett and Billy Wilder is said to add another feather to its already befeathered cap with Paramount's new comedy, "A Foreign Affair," starring Jean Arthur, Marlene Dietrich and John Lund, which is at the Royal Theatre. Brackett, who produced it and Wilder, who directed it, also had a hand in writing the screen play, which should guarantee film-goers wit, originality and high quality entertainment.

The two men who won the Academy Award for their movie version of "The Lost Weekend" and who recently rang the bell with "The Emperor Waltz," have turned their attention to life among the occupation forces in Berlin.

'Best Years' Held Over At Odeon

One of three leading dramatic elements in Samuel Goldwyn's "The Best Years of Our Lives," held over at the Odeon Theatre, is the engrossing story of a disrupted marriage.

A husband, played by Dana Andrews, after absence from home can find no employment except his old drug store job. His wife, a frivolous little gold-digger, played by Virginia Mayo, doesn't like this, and is drawn to other men of more substance. Andrews turns for consolation to Teresa Wright, who plays the daughter of the happy-go-lucky, pleasure-loving Fredric March, and his lovely wife, Myrna Loy, providing a keen domestic problem for the parent couple.

'Crossfire' Gripping Drama At Oak Bay

Primarily a realistic murder mystery, "Crossfire," now at the Oak Bay Theatre, has an underlying theme which constitutes a scorching indictment of bigotry and intolerance. Robert Young, Robert Mitchum and Robert Ryan are starred in this gripping drama laid in postwar Washington.

The story is that of a Jewish ex-serviceman who is murdered by a bigoted chance acquaintance in a fit of blind rage solely because he is a Jew. With no motive for the senseless crime, the police are faced with a hard problem.

"Crossfire" is not a preachment, but a fearless handling of a theme which, to date, has been timidly avoided on the screen.

Metchisin Fair Opened At Luxton

LUXTON—With nearly 400 entries on exhibit, the Metchisin Country Fair was opened here today by Maj. L. H. Johnson, superintendent of the British Columbia Farmers' Institute.

The fair featured a wide variety of exhibits, including vegetables grown in the district, livestock, poultry and handicrafts of all kinds.

The prize for the highest aggregate is an engraved silver tray donated by Robert Simpson Ltd. Among other prizes is a five-month-old registered Jersey bull calf presented by H. Williams, a registered Jersey breeder.

Children were allowed time off by the school board to display their work which included livestock, poultry, home cooking, drawing, sewing and handicrafts exhibits. There was also a Rotary Club garden contest featuring vegetables grown by children.

Meet Red Skelton, Ad Lib Master

The fine art of the ad lib has become a valuable adjunct to Red Skelton's career.

Skelton, a veteran of medicine shows, the circus, burlesque, vaudeville, the theatre and the radio, is perhaps the best of all ad libbers in Hollywood today. Ideas flash from his mind with the speed of jet propulsion. He's never caught short for a gag.

During the making of Columbia's "The Fuller Brush Man," now on view at the Capitol Theatre, Skelton had a field-day.

June Haver Loses Glamour In Film

For the first time in her career, beautiful June Haver has been de-glamorized. June is currently starred as the dreamy waitress in the Twentieth Century-Fox Technicolor film version of Robert Nathan's beloved best-seller, "The Enchanted Voyage," which has been titled, "Wake Up And Dream" and is now at the York Theatre.

In contrast to the stunning wardrobe June wore in "Three Little Girls In Blue," the petite blonde wears only aprons, house dresses, blouses and slacks in "Wake Up And Dream."

Observant Housewife Sees Money Stolen Being Hidden

Richard Brooks, 24-year-old Victoria man, was found guilty by Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court today of stealing $23 in cash from Oliver and Lalonde Motors, 1001 Blanshard Street, on August 7.

He was remanded to tomorrow for sentence.

Virgil T. Lalonde said that at about 3 in the afternoon he left the office to go to the rear of the shop. He was gone only about a minute when he heard the faint tinkle of the cash register bell.

Witness said he hurried back and saw accused in the building and walking away from the office door. Mr. Lalonde said he went in and investigated the cash register, found that while his last entry was for a sale the cash box then read "No Sale." He found $23 in bills, all the bills in the register, missing.

Had only a dollar
Witness said he went after Brooks, caught up with him and accused him of taking the money. Accused denied he was responsible and Lalonde let him go on his way. A little later, however, witness said he saw Brooks on Quadra Street and accused showed him he had only a dollar bill and some pennies.

Mr. Lalonde said Brooks came back to the station with him and gave his address and other particulars.

Accused refused to take the witness box in his own defence and did not wish to say anything. Magistrate Hall said the evidence of Mr. Lalonde and Mrs. Williams fitted together to tie accused up with the theft.

Trial was delayed because Mrs. Williams was hospitalized for the birth of her third child.

Charlotte Up For Sale By Next Summer, Alice Going For Scrap

The veteran coastal steamer Princess Charlotte will be put up for sale next summer and the Princess Alice may have to be scrapped, Capt. O. J. Williams, manager of the C.P.R.'s B.C. Coast Steamship Service, said today.

The Charlotte will be taken off the run, possibly in April, next year, on the arrival of the second of the two new coast ships being built in the United Kingdom, the Princess Marguerite and Princess Patricia, Capt. Williams said.

The Charlotte will be used as a relief ship for a while and then put up for sale. The main trouble with the 40-year-old veteran, said Capt. Williams, is that she has no automobile accommodation. He denied, though, that the Charlotte would be scrapped.

The future of the Princess Alice is, however, another matter. She has been out of service for some time now, awaiting purchase by foreign interests, but as nothing has materialized, Capt. Williams said today, "It looks as if we'll have to scrap her."

The Charlotte, designed by Capt. J. W. Troup, former manager of the coastal steamship service, and built in Glasgow, inaugurated the Victoria-Vancouver-Seattle run in 1908.

New Crusher Expected To Solve
Age-Old Problem Of Garbage

The age-old problem of garbage littering city beaches soon may be a thing of the past.

Ald. J. D. Hunter, public works committee chairman, announced at City Hall today a garbage crusher which has been under construction several months, will be ready for a trial run in a week or 10 days and "there is every indication that it will be a success."

The California machinist firm of Fancher and Fancher, which is removing streetcar tracks from city streets, is building the crusher and the arrangement is that if the city is not satisfied with the machine and the way it works, it will not be bound to pay for the work of building the crusher.

The builders believe the crusher will mangle tires, bottles and refuse to such an extent that little garbage will float long enough, when dumped out in the straits, to be washed back to the beaches with the tides.

The crusher is of a special design. Bulldozer treads are used in the conveying of the garbage between massive crushers which will allow for extra large, unbreakable objects to pass through without damaging the mechanism.

Lansdowne field. Second round of the contest will be held next Sunday at Macdonald Park and the championship decided.

First round results:
Hand launched gliders—Jim Pritchard, senior; George Blackstock, junior.

Tow-line gliders—Gordon More, senior; David Tidbury, novice.

Stick model—Jim Pritchard, senior; John Bailey, junior.

Fuselage model—Gordon More, senior; Ian Douglas, junior.

Freight gas model—Jim Pritchard and Gordon More, class A and Wilbert Clarke, class B.

The park at present is being called Banfield Park after Ald. Charles Banfield, who is president of the Victoria West Community Centre, members of which held work "bees" to develop the park.

The parks committee has received requests that the park be named after W. H. (Billy) Davies, former alderman who was instrumental in having the approximate seven acres of the park set aside for recreational purposes.
